GROTON, Conn. (AP)—President Johnson put his brand on the keel plate of a new nuclear-powered submarine Wednesday and told two audiences that the United States must maintain peace through unsurpassed power.

"There are those who oppose freedom and security," the President told cheering workers at the submarine yard. "They seek by fear and subversion to thwart man's hopes for peace."

"If they do not understand our motives for peace, we must be sure they do not misunderstand our means of power."

Expansion Of State Industry

HARRISBURG (AP)—A total of 115 new plant operations and expansions were announced in Pennsylvania last month, the State Commerce Department reported Wednesday.

In addition, nine firms were reported as relocating into new or idle plants, the report continued.

Sixty-two of the announcements were for new plants and 53 were expansions.

Eighty-nine of the 124 affected firms have reported that their action will result in 6,299 new jobs in the state, the department said.

27 Survive In Spelling Bee

WASHINGTON (AP)—Seventy boys and girls pitted themselves against Webster's dictionary Wednesday in the 37th annual National Spelling Bee and 27 of them survived the first day's slogging of 494 words.

The 43 youngsters eliminated stumbled on such tough words as "agiotage," "amaryllis," "calanus" and "boutonnere" but the spelling will get even tougher when the remaining 27 battle it out for the $1,000 first prize Thursday.

Girls were more heavily represented than boys among the starting 70 city and regional spelling champs, 44 to 26. The survivors include 17 girls and 10 boys.

Abbe Leaves Xavier Cugat

JUAREZ, Mexico (AP)—A "quickie" Mexican divorce was granted Wednesday by Judge Carlos Uranga Munoz to singer Abbe Lane from Latin musician Xavier Cugat.

The couple was married May 5, 1952, at Miami, Fla. They had no children.

The decree showed that a property settlement had been reached, with Miss Lane gaining custody of Pasquellino, the couple's tiny chihuahua dog. She also got the couple's two French poodles.

Cugat's attorney didn't contest the proceedings.

After the court's decision Miss Lane said the divorce was a sad thing for her, but she said she now wanted to marry someone else and raise a large family.

Frank Costello Caught In Raid

NEW YORK (AP)—Racketeer Frank Costello, aging former underworld kingpin, was caught up in a gambling raid on a midtown restaurant Wednesday, and for three hours held as a vagrant.

Costello eventually won dismissal of the vagrancy charge, after threatening to bring famed attorney Edward Bennett Williams here from Washington. The lawyer has represented Costello in the past.

Emerging from a free man from the downtown Criminal Courts when he did not know whether the man he was breaking bread with was a bookie or not.

His arrest occurred in early afternoon, during a sudden federal drive against Broadway gambling operations.

Costello, 73, protested that he had money with him—although he didn't say how much. He added that he is retired—but didn't say from what.

Stock Market Trading Slowest

NEW YORK (AP)—The stock market Wednesday failed to generate enough steam to follow through on a promising early rally and ended the session with another loss on the slowest trading of the year.

The Dow Jones industrial average, which in early afternoon showed a gain of 1.78, closed with a net loss of 1.93 at 811.79. It was relatively mild decline. Volume was down to 3.99 million shares from 4.17 Tuesday and was the smallest since Dec. 26 when 3.7 million shares changed hands.

Senate Okays Project 70; Measure Goes To House

The Senate showdown came just two hours after Maurice K. Goddard, state secretary of forests and waters, went before the Republican caucus to try and quell reported rural opposition.

The measure, setting down guidelines for acquisition of parklands under a $70 million bond issue authorized by the voters last November, now goes to the House.

Another $20 million is set aside as matching funds for development of local parks and the final $10 million is to be used for new hunting and fishing areas.

One of the key features of the bill requires the state to pay in-lieu-of-taxes to local governments for land acquired under Project 70 until the surrounding land increases enough in valuation to absorb the loss. The state also is to pay 20 cents an acre over and above the in-lieu-of-tax.

Senate Democrats were unanimous in their endorsement of the bill, but voted reluctantly because of the restrictions inserted by Republicans.

"I am not happy with the measure but it's the best we can get so I am voting for it," declared Minority Leader Charles R. Weiner, D-Philadelphia, in the only remarks preceding the vote.

In other action, Republicans rejected Democratic efforts to add $4 million to the $1.072 billion general appropriation bill for mental health.

Sen. William J. Lane, D-Washington, said the extra money is needed to provide top-flight technical help at the state's schools for retarded children.

Republicans argued however that the state does not have the money to support the increase.

The giant bill, increased $2.7 million Tuesday by the Senate Appropriations Committee, was advanced into position for a final vote next Monday when the Senate and House return.

The House has been in recess since last week.

Sainthood Urged For Pope John

VATICAN CITY (AP)—In the north Italian birthland of Pope John XXIII a move was started Wednesday to make him a saint.

A petition signed by 50,000 people in Bergamo Province was presented to a bishop of the Roman Catholic Church asking for proceedings to beatify Pope John, who died just a year ago. Beatification is a step toward canonization as a saint.

Bishop Clemente Gaddi of Bergamo said the petition would be sent promptly to the Congregation of Rites at the Vatican.

The congregation handles causes for beatification and canonization. Beatification is the process of establishing that one may be publicly venerated by Roman Catholics in a particular area. It bestows the title of "blessed" on the one beatified.

It will be up to Pope Paul VI and the Congregation of Rites to determine whether a cause for beatification should be opened.

Vatican sources said a petition with so many names—showing popular devotion to John—could be a strong factor.

There is no fixed time for beatification. Pope Pius X was the last pontiff beatified and canonized. He died in 1914 and was beatified in 1951. He was canonized in 1954.

Normally the Church requires proof of what it considers two miracles for beatification, and two more for canonization. These involve the seemingly miraculous cure of sick persons.

The Rev. Pietro Bosio, parish priest in John's home town of Sotto il Monte, said there has been no Church-recognized miracle for John. But he said there were stories of a girl recovering her eyesight and an elderly man regaining health, both through prayer to the late Pope.

600 Koreans Hurt In Rock-Hurling Riots

SEOUL, South Korea (AP)—Elite troops enforced martial law in Seoul after bloody rioting by 20,000 antigovernment demonstrators left more than 600 Koreans injured.

Martial law was proclaimed Wednesday in this city of three million as rocks drove army troops into the capitol compound not far from the residence of President Chung Hee Park.

In a statement, Park said the demonstrations "amounted to subversive antigovernment activities" and an open challenge to a constitutionally elected government. He promised to lift martial law "as soon as peace and order are restored."

In the vanguard of Wednesday's fighting, which raged through the day and into the shouting "President Park step down!"

Joined by civilians, the students overwhelmed the national police, seized army trucks, and battered at the gates of the capitol, forcing Park to call out 1,000 troops of his special defense command.

The main battleground was Capitol Avenue, scene of the bloody student-led demonstrations of 1960 that led to the ouster of President Syngman Rhee and brought Park to power as head of a military junta. Park shed his general's uniform and was elected president last October.

The students have been demonstrating intermittently since March, but never before had Park's regime seen such a day of wild disorder. First the students had protested negotiations with Japan, an old enemy. Last month they broadened their charges to include official corruption and police rule.

At the seat of the trouble is inflation and unemployment.

Romania Agrees To Inspection

MOSCOW (AP)—Communist Romania's agreement to accept international inspection of any nuclear reactor sold to it by the United States impressed diplomats here Wednesday as a breakthrough in the East-West disarmament deadlock.

They held this view even though such a reactor would be designed for peaceful rather than military purposes.

The key angle is inspection. That has been the prime issue at Geneva conferences intended to end the arms race.

As the demonstrations rose in violence, Park conferred with U.S. Ambassador Samuel D. Berger and U.S. Gen. Hamilton H. Howze, who is also U.N. commander, whose government has kept this little nation afloat with millions of dollars in aid through war and peace.

The United States and other Western powers consider tight inspection essential to guarantee no cheating under any East-West agreement to cut armaments and military manpower.

Clark Says Post Costs Him Money

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. Joseph S. Clark, D-Pa., told the Senate Wednesday he has to spend "a great many thousands of dollars" out of his own pocket for the citizens of Pennsylvania.

Clark placed in the congressional record a chart showing that the staff and expenses of his office cost taxpayers about $170,000 a year. He said he regarded this as "a good investment."

At the same time Clark, with an assist from Sen. Stephen M. Young, D-Ohio, complained that senators do not receive enough funds to:

Accept many collect long distance calls from constituents.

Make regular trips back home to meet with constituents.

Cover costs of stationery and other mail, including newsletters.

Clark also complained that a complicated and deceptive system for listing the salaries of Senate aides appears to be an attempt "to conceal from the public" the actual amounts.

He said "a base salary of $33,000, $4,000 or even $7,000" actually may mean double or more than the amounts.

Clark said his allowance for telephone calls was inadequate and at the same time there was $7,800 in his fund for telegrams "which I can not use" because of Senate limitations.

Clark said it is "high time that we pass" a bill increasing pay and allowances for members of Congress and their staffs.

Barry Offers Rocky Seat On Winning GOP Bandwagon

Winner Salinger Taunts GOP Foe

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Pierre Salinger, press secretary to the late President John F. Kennedy, and George Murphy, former film actor-dancer, traded jibes Wednesday in the opening of what promises to be an unusually colorful California senatorial campaign.

Salinger, the Democrats' choice for the November showdown, and Republican winner Murphy immediately gave the voters a taste of what to expect from two amiable but serious foes.

"Murphy, gray and handsome at 61, said his campaign headquarters telephone switchboard 'has been flooded with calls from Democrats asking how they can help.' He said, 'I'll make a strong attempt to welcome to my campaign organization all those disenchanted Democrats who worked so hard for Alan Cranston.'"

Murphy, as expected, handily beat San Francisco financier Leland Kaiser and former Kansas Gov. Fred Hall.

Salinger toppled Cranston, state controller, and 10 others, including incumbent Sen. Clair Engle, who withdrew too late to have his name sken off the ballot.

Salinger commented: "I think we can enjoy this campaign because Mr. Murphy stands for everything that would move this country backward. I concede that Mr. Murphy is a better tap dancer than I, but I know I can take him at the piano. I never heard of a tap dancer making it to Washington."

Murphy, no stranger to politics—having served as Republican state chairman—promised "a contest of issues," saying, "I won't trade insults with Mr. Salinger."

Cranston congratulated Salinger on his victory and said, "I want him to know that I stand ready to do whatever I can for him in the general election."

Salinger said, "There is no question that my association with President Kennedy helped me."

Governor Says He's Not 'Dropping Out'

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Sen. Barry Goldwater, confident his crucial California primary victory assures him the GOP presidential nomination, urged Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller on Wednesday to join him in the struggle "to unseat the Democrats in November."

Rockefeller, conceding his loss in the razor-thin upset in Tuesday's balloting for California's 86 convention votes, refused to count himself out of the nomination struggle.

"I am not dropping out of anything," he declared.

"The convention is a month off, and a lot can happen between now and then," he said.

Goldwater's statement hailing "a great victory" was in line with the thinking of many observers that the California outcome virtually knocked the New York governor out of his last slim chance for the nomination.

Goldwater said in a statement inviting Rockefeller to join him in fighting the Democrats that his California victory was "for the great majority of Republicans across the country who share my belief that Lyndon Baines Johnson can be beaten in 1964 if we Republicans concentrate our fire on him and not on each other."

The jet-pilot Arizona senator obviously was making an immediate pitch to heal the Republican party split engendered by the bitter California campaign.

Addressing a New York news conference just ahead of Goldwater's Washington statement, Rockefeller declared he is still in the race at the mid-July convention in San Francisco. He said he would continue to fight for what he regards as fundamental Republican principles.

Rockefeller said the party must continue the "policies reflected by its 1956 and 1960 platforms," which Goldwater found somewhat less than satisfactory.

The latest returns: 32,861 precincts of 32,861. Goldwater 1,090,720; Rockefeller 1,031,161.

Goldwater's victory, which confounded the pollsters who had made him the underdog, seemed likely to influence the drafting of the party platform.

The Platform Committee, which begins its sessions a week in advance of the July 13 opening of the convention, may be quite attentive to the senator's ideas.

Oregon Gov. Mark O. Hatfield, convention keynoter and no Goldwater rooster, has called for adoption of a "platform that is in league with historic Republican principles."

Goldwater has indicated opposition to some provisions of the civil rights bill pending before the Senate. He can be expected to oppose any all-out declaration that would endanger his chances of carrying some Southern states if he is the nominee.

Goldwater got almost no support from California Negro voters or from other minorities.

The senator's California victory put high-gauge pressure on Republicans in 15 states and Puerto Rico to turn in his direction in the choice this month of the final 257 convention delegates.

Backers of Lodge, who had won the New Hampshire primary, urged their man's supporters to vote for Rockefeller in an effort to stop Goldwater.

Computer Crystal Balls Picked Goldwater Quick

NEW YORK (AP)—A small box of electronic gadgets, functioning as the space age successor to yesteryear's old pro politician, needs only a handful of key election returns to predict the winner.

California's cliff-hanger primary demonstrated this once again.

But there are limits to what an electronic computer can do and its accuracy is only as good in reporting election outcomes as the small army of scientists, technicians, analysts and reporters which tend it.

Man has to exercise the judgment. The three major television networks—all of which use computer systems—all stress this fact.

Tuesday night, on the basis of only 1,800 of the 2 million votes cast in the California Republican presidential preference race, the Columbia Broadcasting System proclaimed Sen. Barry Goldwater of Arizona the victor over New York Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller.

At 8:12 p.m., an hour and 12 minutes after the first polls close, the American Broadcasting Co. followed suit.

CBS and ABC did not use any votes in coming to their conclusions. The votes were cast in precincts studiously selected to provide a quick profile of California voting—42 in the case of CBS and 45 ABC.

The National Broadcasting Co. had its sample precincts, too—198 of the 32,861 in the state. But this network's judgment was that the returns were running too close to warrant picking the winner for several hours.

As the Associated Press' tabulation continued through the night, Rockefeller forged ahead of the senator and stayed there until about 7:20 a.m. Then a flood of Goldwater votes gave the senator the victory. He captured 50.9 per cent of the total. Only after the AP report did Rockefeller concede.

As used with minor variations by all three networks in the California primary, the computer told three things: What is happening, what will happen and how it happened.

The first computer function hired thousands of temporary workers to telephone the figures directly from polling places. They concentrated on the "top of the ticket"—that is, the few leading races—whereas newspapers and wire services compiled the voting in all races.

The second function is where the computer performed the role of the knowledgeable old pro. He was the man who could tell at a glance the meaning of the returns from San Francisco Chinatown precincts of wealthy Beverly Hills residential areas.

The networks were secretive about specifically what information they put into the computers in advance of the voting and exactly which precincts they chose for sampling. Together, these precincts formed a miniature California, as near as the experts could determine.

And with a representative number of these precincts' returns in hand, compared with advance opinion polls in the areas, the networks could predict the outcome.

438 Votes Jingle In Barry's Pocket

WASHINGTON (AP)—The stretch drive is on for Republican presidential nominating delegates and a spot survey of states still to make selections shows Sen. Barry Goldwater will be close to a first-ballot victory when the GOP National Convention opens next month.

Some 258 delegates remain to be chosen in 15 states and Puerto Rico. Political leaders and observers estimated Wednesday that Goldwater could pick up between 145 and 215.

The Associated Press survey of delegates already chosen shows Goldwater with 438 first-ballot votes, including the 88 he won in Tuesday's California primary. That's about two-thirds of the 655 needed for the nomination. The Goldwater camp already claims 454 delegates.

If he picks up his maximum potential, Goldwater would go into the convention with between 625 and 650 delegates.

The AP survey, based on primary commitments, instructions, pledges and state preferences, shows this first-ballot breakdown of the 1,050 delegates already chosen:

Goldwater	438
Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller	117
Sen. Margaret Chase Smith	44
Richard M. Nixon	15
Favorite sons	100
Uncommitted	253

Republicans in four states hold conventions the end of this week with 65 more votes at stake.

Moscow Explains Goldwater Win

MOSCOW (AP)—A commentator for Moscow Radio said Wednesday Sen. Barry Goldwater won the California primary because of strong military interests in the state.

Goldwater is called by Soviet press and radio a "wild man" and a "cannibal" who wants to extend the war in South Viet Nam and takes a militaristic attitude toward the world.

The aircraft and missile industry interests in the Los Angeles area were a factor in Goldwater's vote lead there, played a key part in the California primary, Moscow Radio contended.

GOP Disagrees Has Barry Clinched It?

WASHINGTON (AP) RME... publican leaders divided sharply Wednesday over the meaning of Sen. Barry Goldwater's surprising victory in the California primary.

Does this clinch the GOP presidential nomination for the Arizona senator?

Yes, say jubilant Goldwater supporters.

Not necessarily, say those who have tried to sidetrack Goldwater.

"I shall continue to fight," said Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller of New York. "The convention is a month off and a lot can happen between now and then."

Goldwater, terming his showing "a great victory," called on Republicans to gang up on the President. Johnson can be beaten in 1964," Goldwater said, "if we Republicans concentrate our fire on him and not on each other."

In this sea of opinion the facts are simple enough. When Goldwater narrowly and dramatically edged past Rockefeller in Tuesday's California primary, it brought his delegate total to 438 in an Associated Press survey.

He needs only 655 to win when the Republicans meet in San Francisco on July 13.

So is it all over but the formalities and the inevitable shouting?

Gov. Mark Hatfield of Oregon, who will be the GOP keynoter, thinks California nailed it down for Goldwater. Hatfield isn't personally committed to any candidate, although he is a member of the Oregon delegation instructed to vote for Rockefeller, as a result of the state primary.

"It very much looks like Goldwater is on the way to the nomination," said Rep. Leslie Arends of Illinois, GOP whip in the House.

Former Sen. William F. Knowland, who managed Goldwater's campaign in California, said: "It is going to be very difficult for the opposition to put together any coalition because they don't have the delegate votes."

Rep. Joseph W. Martin Jr., of Massachusetts, who has presided over five GOP conventions, a record, said: "It wasn't a very good showing. If he had won it big, then you'd have to say it was all over, but he didn't. I don't think this assures him of the nomination, but they can't just pass over him."

Sen. Frank Carlson, R-Kan., said: "It doesn't clinch it. The closeness of the vote indicates there will be some soul-searching in San Francisco."

Gov. George Romney of Michigan often mentioned as a darkhouse candidate, stressed the narrowness of victory.

"I also think," Romney said, "it adds strength to the wisdom of the Michigan Republican delegation to remain uncommitted while we learn more and their positions."

Romney said he wants long talk with Goldwater to find out more about where the senator stands on civil rights, labor-management relations and foreign affairs.

State News Roundup

New Interstate Highway Urged

HARRISBURG (AP) — Five senators called this week for the construction of a new interstate highway crossing southern Pennsylvania between Philadelphia and Pittsburgh, independent of the turnpike.

"The Commonwealth is not receiving its fair share of federal highway funds," declared Sen. George N. Wade, R-Cumberland, chairman of the Senate highway committee.

The measure, referred to the highway committee, proposes an interstate highway beginning in the industrial center of West Philadelphia, connecting with Interstate Route 95, and proceeding through industrial Philadelphia, Chester, West Chester, Conestoga, Downingtown, Lancaster, then northwest to Harrisburg, Lewisburg, the Juniata Valley, Huntingdon and the Huntingdon Valley, Hollidaysburg, Altoona, Johnstown and Pittsburgh.

Spot-Checking Hospitals

HARRISBURG (AP) — The Governor's Hospital Study Commission said this week it will run spot checks to determine whether hospitals are making full use of facilities.

The aim of the survey, announced by Arlin M. Adams, secretary of public welfare and chairman of the commission, is "to keep costs of hospitalization to an absolute minimum."

Adams said he has learned of cases where some doctors are keeping patients in hospitals longer than medically necessary.

Senators Want To Buy Painting

HARRISBURG (AP) — Two Senate Democrats proposed an $11,000 appropriation this week for the purchase of a reproduction of the painting "The Gross Clinic" by Thomas Eakins.

"This painting is the masterpiece of one of America's most famous artists and was first exhibited at the centennial exhibition in Philadelphia in 1876," said Sen. Israel Stiefel, D-Philadelphia, one of the sponsors.

Joining him was Sen. William J. Lane, D-Washington. The bill was referred to the committee on legislation.

The painting portrays a surgical clinic at the Jefferson Medical College in the late 1800s. The bill would appropriate the money to the Pennsylvania Historical and Museum Commission to purchase the masterpiece.

LCB Suspends Local License

HARRISBURG (AP) — The State Liquor Control Board announced suspension Tuesday of licenses in the following counties for the reasons it cited:

Effective June 22: Monroe—G. Curtis Dunn, East Stroudsburg, 5 days; sales to minors.

Effective June 23: Luzerne — William & John O'Keefe, B. & J's cafe, 153-155 Vince St., Plymouth, 25 days; permitted minors to frequent; sales to minors.

Lackawanna — Frank Nerc, (1161 Leomis Ave.), Taylor, 30 days; noisy operation; permitted inside loud-speaking device whereby sound of music or other entertainment could be heard on outside; sales on Sunday after 2 a.m.

Phone Company To Lower Rates

HARRISBURG (AP) — The Public Utility Commission Monday authorized the United Telephone Co., Carlisle, to lower rates by $114,000 annually starting July 1.

The benefits will go to some 13,000 of United's 92,500 subscribers served through 65 exchanges in Adams, Bedford, Blair, Bucks, Centre, Clinton, Cumberland, Franklin, Fulton, Huntingdon, Juniata, Mifflin, Perry, Somerset and York counties.

State Surplus

HARRISBURG (AP) — A high state official estimated Tuesday that the Scranton Administration still will finish the current fiscal year with a $24 million surplus, despite an estimated $2 million deficit in tax collections.

Budget Secretary Martin H. Brackbill said that if the $117 million collection estimate were met in June, the end of the fiscal year, total collections for the year would amount to nearly $1.127 billion.

This would be about $2 million short of the $1.129 billion estimate made by the administration last January.

Demo Primary Outcome May Be Known By Autumn

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Hearings on 561 challenged Philadelphia absentee ballots in the Democratic senatorial nomination contest open Monday. They are expected to take at least seven weeks.

"It may still go over Labor Day (Sept. 9)," Maurice Osser, chairman of the elections board, said Wednesday in laying down the ground rules for the hearings ordered by Pennsylvania's Supreme Court.

Similar hearings on over 377 challenged absentee ballots are being held in Lackawanna County.

As of today, minus the disputed votes, state Internal Affairs Secretary Genevieve Blatt leads Justice Michael A. Musmanno of the Supreme Court by 640 out of a million votes counted.

Osser said the board will hold a hearing on about 16 ballots daily, each lasting about a half hour. If there are no delays, or legal disputes, this would take 35 days.

Osser said there still is no way of matching envelopes in which ballots were mailed (and which carry the name of the voter) with the ballot which was inside and since removed. He said no decision had been reached on how this matter would be handled.

Under the procedure, attorneys for Miss Blatt will check all the envelopes and write on the face of each their reason for challenging.

"Then we will be in a position to know which of the 561 ballots—or all of them—have been challenged," said Osser. "Once the reasons are written we will start notifying the people whose ballots are challenged to be in court."

Osser said he wouldn't ask any voter to say how he marked his ballot, in an effort to match it with an envelope.

Atty. Abraham E. Freedman, chief of the Musmanno legal forces, said he would go into federal court if the secrecy of the vote is violated.

Freedman said the Blatt people are seeking to delay by "obstructionist tactics to keep this thing going right up to the (November) election" hoping their candidate will gain the nomination automatically because she is now leading.

Hectic World In Short

By Frank Perrella

Here's irony:
For ten years, Formosan farmer Su Ching-chuan, 34, saved money to build a house.

Finally, he had enough to put up the house.
But when he started to install the wiring, he was electrocuted.

It was a fine idea but, it didn't work —
A quick-witted thief scattered yen notes along a Japanese street but got caught anyway. He had snatched a briefcase containing 20 million yen — $35,500 — from Jinichi Honda who yelled "Thief! Thief!" Passersby gave chase and undeterred by the easy money flying around their ears collared their man. Police said all the money was recovered.

In Venice, Italy, a sightseeing soldier woke up a lot of sleepy Venetians.
He had to. He was locked in the famed bell tower of St. Mark's Square. The only way he could get out was to ring the bell.

Normally, the bell sounds a last time at midnight. The watchman warns all visitors to leave and then locks the door.

Saturday, the bell started ringing long before dawn. Venetians awoke. Many went into the streets, wondering if they were being warned of a disaster.

The watchman rushed from his home and unlocked the tower door.
Police said they found a young American serviceman locked in the tower. They said he had been so busy taking night photographs of Venice that he did not realize the tower had been closed. He thanked the police and watchman and disappeared before they could establish his identity.

The marksmanship was had and it was fortunate for two East Berlin youths. The pair crawled through several barbed wire obstacles and then made a dash for West Berlin and freedom.

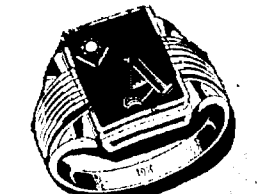

East German border guards opened fire but they missed the fleeing youths.

Two Youths Injured In Accident

STRODSBURG — Two youths were injured in a two-car accident at 10th and Main Sts., Stroudsburg at 2:15 p.m. yesterday.

Elizabeth Hine, 16, and Thomas G. Kemp, 17, both of Anasomink were taken to the General Hospital of Monroe County for treatment and released, Stroudsburg police said.

The girl suffered a possible nose and right foot injury while Kemp had a cut on his forehead.

Stroudsburg police identified Paul M. Warner, 18, of 113 Park Ave., Stroudsburg as the driver of the southbound vehicle on north 10th street. The Warner vehicle pulled onto west Main Street when the collision with a car driven by Eileen A. Sommers, 17, of 280

Thomas St., Stroudsburg occurred. She was traveling west on Main Street.

Sommers told police she saw the Warner vehicle pull out of the intersection, and applied her brakes and swerved her car in an attempt to avoid colliding with the Warner vehicle.

Garland Felled By Pleurisy

HONG KONG (AP)—Dr. Lee Siegel said this week that singer Judy Garland is suffering from pleurisy. The Hollywood doctor said it was an aftermath of "a coma of unknown origin."

Miss Garland fell into a coma Thursday and was rushed to a Hong Kong hospital. Hospital sources said her pulse nearly stopped but a Hong Kong doctor revived her.

Siegel, who flew in from Hollywood Sunday, described Miss Garland's condition as fairly good.

Garland's condition as fairly good.

"Her heart sounds good and her pulse is normal," he said. The singer will have to remain in the hospital for at least a week, he added.

The cause of the coma has not been announced.

Holiday Slaughter Hits 431

CHICAGO (AP) — The nation counted a traffic accident death toll of 431 during the Memorial Day weekend.

The fatality count during the three days and six hours between 6 p.m., Thursday, when many holidaymakers began recreation trips, and midnight Sunday set a record—of sorts. It was the most deadly such three-day Memorial Day thus far, the toll surpassing the record 371 of the comparable 1958 holiday.

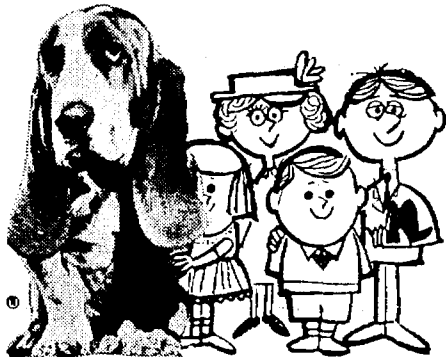

But it was expected, falling within the limits of a preholiday traffic death estimate of 410 to 490 by the National Safety Council.

It also was not much more deadly than a nonholiday weekend two weeks ago when 418 were killed in traffic between 6 p.m., Thursday, May 14, and Sunday, May 17.

3 More School Boards Appeal 4-District Plan

STROUDSBURG — School boards from East Stroudsburg Borough and Eldred and Porter Townships beat yesterday's deadline and filed appeals to the recently adopted four-district plan of school reorganization for Monroe County.

East Stroudsburg and Porter contended a single county school district would be more desirable and Eldred's appeal stressed that township wants to join the Palmyerton Area School District.

Coupled with an earlier appeal, filed by Rose Township, yesterday's action brought the number of school districts fighting inclusion in the four-district plan to four.

Goes To Harrisburg

Walter Sebring, assistant county superintendent of schools, said he expected to serve the plan to the Board of Education in Harrisburg Friday.

According to Act 299, the state's new school law, the plan will receive automatic approval by the basic council, and will then be sent to the State Board of Education which will take action on the appeals.

The state board can do one of three things with the appealed plan:

1. It can turn the appeals down and approve the four-district plan.
2. It can uphold the appeals and write its own reorganization plan for county schools.
3. It can uphold the appeal and send the plan back to the county school board to be rewritten.

East Stroudsburg, which is the second largest school district in the county, pointed out in its appeal:

"A single unit would provide a uniform tax rate so far as school district's share of the tax burden on real estate is concerned throughout the county and would tend to equalize the tax burden in this single economic

Tuition Fee Only $15

STROUDSBURG—Tuition for seventh and eighth summer school at Stroud, Union High School will be $15 per pupil, according to Alfred Munson, high school principal.

Due to a typographical error the tuition rate appeared in yesterday's newspaper as $150. The school will run from June 22 to July 31 and will be limited to academic subjects, Munson said.

unit. "More specifically, that the East Stroudsburg State College's major expansion program is continually removing taxable real estate from the tax rolls of East Stroudsburg.

Eastburg Bears Burden

"The college in effect serves the entire county, yet the borough of East Stroudsburg School District bears the burden of loss in taxables. In contrast thereto, the assessment increases in the county is over $3 million."

The East Stroudsburg and Porter appeals were filed by Atty. Alex Bensinger of Stroudsburg, solicitor for both districts, and except for the tax angle contained the same objections.

Both appeals claimed a single unit would provide eliminate overlapping transportation among districts; provide better library facilities, especially in the county's elementary centers, and would offer a more efficient system with better training for students in languages, business education, science, and intensified programs advanced students.

East Stroudsburg and Porter, both members of the East Stroudsburg Area Joint School District, contend a single district would effect savings in duplications of administrators', secretary, and school treasurers' salaries.

It would also eliminate any possible competition between various salary schedules for teachers within the county, "which competition will contain under the new adopted plan," the appeals allege.

Favors Palmyerton

Eldred's appeal, filed by Atty. Jacob Philip of Palmyerton, claims because of geographic location and cultural ties Eldred would be better off as a part of the Palmyerton district. Eldred is included in the Pleasant Valley district.

Palmyerton has voted to accept Eldred but the Monroe County School Board has refused to release it and included Eldred in its present plan.

"There would be immediate benefit to Eldred students in Palmyerton, while the present plan of Monroe County would not ensure beneficially to them for many years in the future, if at all," the attorney said.

From a detailed study made by the Eldred school board, the appeal claims:

"It is apparent that the percentage of Eldred students graduating from Palmyerton and continuing their education is greater than those graduating from Pleasant Valley."

In Eastburg

Owner Denies Discrimination

STROUDSBURG—The owner of Redmond Finishing Co. in East Stroudsburg yesterday denied his firm discriminates against Negroes when hiring workers.

Alan Ginsburg made the denial after Jesse Lynch, president of the Monroe County Chapter of the National Assn. for the Advancement of Colored People, charged Tuesday two Negro girls had been refused work at the finishing mill.

"We didn't turn anybody down for work. Everybody fills out an application which we file and use as we need them. The two specific cases mentioned in the newspaper never occurred," Ginsburg said.

Informal Complaint

Lynch said an informal complaint was made to the state Human Relations Commission after one Negro girl said she was turned down for a job because she had no previous employment record in the area and another was told she did not weigh enough to work there.

Ginsburg said it was "ridiculous" to think he would tell a girl she could not work at the mill "because she did not weigh enough."

He said his firm employs 80 people in the mill. None of the workers are Negro, he said.

Kresge Appointed Sewer Plant Head

STROUDSBURG — Floyd Kresge of Colbert St., Stroudsburg, last night was named superintendent of Stroudsburg Borough's Sewage Disposal Plant.

The appointment was made by Stroudsburg Borough council after accepting the resignation of Harvey B. Burris. Burris resigned to accept a teaching position with the Burnley Workshop, a school for handicapped children in Monroe County.

In other business, Harold Snyder, borough manager, told the meeting that a letter from C. H. McConnell, chief engineer for Pennsylvania Department of Forests and Waters, said there were no funds available to clear the channel of Pocono Creek in the borough.

After a discussion on constructing sidewalks on Dreher Ave., council turned the matter over to Atty. George Robinson, borough solicitor, for study of all possible legal problems.

Edward Hess, borough engineer, told the meeting that the estimated cost to construct sidewalks on Dreher Ave. is $4,940, but that in doing the job the borough would, in some places, raise the grade. This would require property owners to make necessary repairs to sidewalks on their property.

In other business council decided to retain the present traffic pattern on McConnell Street, near the new A&P Store, until further notice.

Council had considered changing the pattern in that local. They will now wait to see what pattern will develop and then take action to change it, if necessary.

In other business council approved the addition of 291 persons, listed as non-taxables, to the borough tax duplicate.

Snyder pointed out that the chief assessor did not include them and that it was his opinion that the chief assessor does not have the authority to delete the names for persons from the borough tax duplicate.

He said, "The county can exonerate persons from county taxes and the borough can exonerate persons from the duplicate, but the practice has been to have them listed. Then if the tax collector can not collect taxes he submits a list of names for exonerations to council for it to act on."

Council also approved the preparation and service of notice, in accordance with the provisions of Ordinance 204, on Lewis Shiffer estate to lay sidewalk along the Lee Avenue side of property at the corner of Lee Ave. and Collins Street.

Snyder was told to advertise for bids for 10,000 pounds of liquid chlorine for use at the sewage treatment plant, and for construction materials for streets in the borough.

Council also set Wednesday, July 8, as the date for the July meeting.

NEOLA — Mrs. Mae Speer, 83, of Stroudsburg RD 2 died Wednesday at 11:50 a.m. in the General Hospital of Monroe County after an illness of two weeks.

She was a daughter of the late Archibald and Martha Drake Young. She was born in New Jersey and lived in the Neola section for the last 12 years.

Disturbed Child Services For Students Starts July 1

EAST STROUDSBURG — A child guidance center making available diagnostic and consultative services to disturbed students in Monroe County's public schools will be started July 1.

Monroe and Carbon County school administrators, guidance directors and school nurses were briefed on the project yesterday in the East Stroudsburg Area High School.

Psychologist Esther A. Gross, director of the program for Monroe and Carbon Counties, said the program officially begins in July but county school districts can make referrals immediately.

The program is fully subsidized by the Department of Public Instruction and will make available to county students three fulltime psychologists and three parttime psychiatrists.

Mrs. Gross told the group that to be successful the program must spot potentially disturbed children when they are young enough to be helped. She said the ideal age is between 6-9.

She urged the educators to refer any student to the center who is not learning up to potential, is shy or over aggressive.

The teachers were told to try and detect any signs in a student of nervousness, refusal to obey, temper tantrums, fainting or other spells, indifference to others, bulliness, too easily led, among other things.

Tested, Interviewed

Students referred to the center, which has its office in Jim Thorpe but is fully available to Monroe County, will be tested and interviewed by a trained psychologist. The psychologist will also meet with parents of students being tested.

Mrs. Gross said if a student is found in need of psychiatric consultation it will be made available.

She stressed the point the center is purely diagnostic and consultative and offers no therapy. She said, however, if a student needs therapy treatment the center will refer the student to the appropriate agency.

15 Per Cent Need Help

Dr. John Abbruzzese, county psychologist, said according to statistics, 15 per cent of the county's 9,000 students are in need of psychiatric or psychological treatment.

The door was opened for Monroe to join the center when Northampton County pulled out of the setup in order to operate its own guidance program.

The Monroe County school board recently approved the program as did the Department of Public Instruction.

Mrs. Gross reported the following facts compiled since the program's start in 1958:

—Of 749 students treated, 51 per cent were found to be behavior disorders; 15 per cent, mentally deficient, and only 2 per cent were psychotic.

Old L-NE Station Purchased

PEN ARGYL — James Geller of Pen Argyl has recently purchased the old Lehigh and New England freight station at Lobb and Pennsylvania Avenues in Pen Argyl.

Geller said, "The 24-foot by 69-foot building was built about 1927 by the railroad and was recently purchased by Anthony Dally and Sons of Pen Argyl. I bought it from them."

"I will move my equipment into the building sometime this summer. My plans call for an expansion program, but this is not in the immediate future."

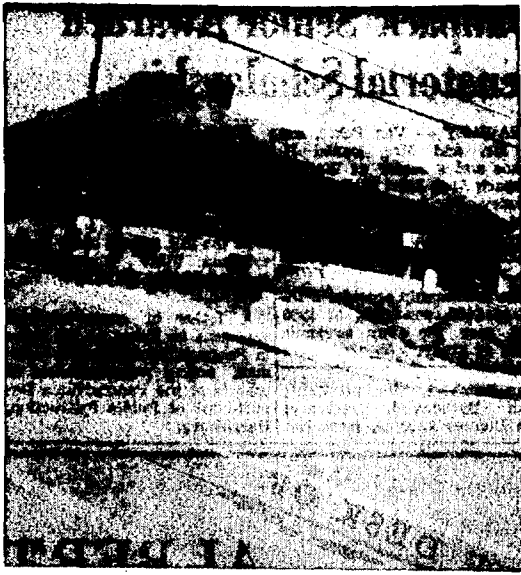

Businessman Since '49
Geller started in job and commercial printing business in Pen Argyl about 1949.

Before moving into the building he will have it renovated. "Plans call for additional electrical lines to be installed and also the pumping to be modernized before I move in," Geller said.

Equipment to be placed in the new building includes several hand presses, two automatic presses, a complete bindery set-up. In the expansion plans Geller will move an offset press into the building. However, this will come in the future, possibly in late 1966.

SU's Taylor To Teach At Millersville

STROUDSBURG — Gordon Taylor, son of Mr. and Mrs. Maurice D. Taylor, Monroe, Pa., has accepted a position on the faculty of Millersville State College.

He will be teaching electricity — electronics as well as mechanical drawing.

In May, 1958, Mr. Taylor received his Bachelor's Degree from Millersville State Teachers College and in May, 1963, he was awarded a Masters Degree from his alma mater, Millersville State College.

During the past six years, Taylor has been teaching the wood shop and mechanical drawing in the Stroud Union High School, Stroudsburg, Pa.

While in Stroudsburg, he has been active in community affairs and during the last year has served as an elder in the First Presbyterian Church of Stroudsburg; president of the Stroud Union Teachers Association; and also vice president of the Industrial Management Club of Monroe County.

He is married to the former Joan Geiger. They have two girls, Debra Joan, 8, and Pamela Sue, 4.

The Taylors expect to be leaving Stroudsburg for Millersville sometime during July. He will start his new teaching assignment Aug. 5.

LBJ Foresees Record Growth

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Johnson predicted this week the United States' record economic expansion, now in its 40th month, "will roll on through 1964" and well into 1965.

He said the administration's January forecast of a $623-billion gross national product — the total of all goods and services produced — will be realized or bettered this year.

It is now running at an annual rate of $608 billion.

FAT OVERWEIGHT

Available to you without a doctor's prescription, our drug called ODRINEX. You must lose only fat or your money back. No strenuous exercise, laxatives, massage or fasting of so-called "reducing" cures. Crackers or cookies, or chewing gum. ODRINEX is a tiny tablet and easily swallowed. When you take ODRINEX, you still enjoy your meals, still eat the foods you like, but you simply don't have the urge for extra portions because ODRINEX decreases your appetite and decreases your desire for food. Your weight must come down, because as your own doctor will tell you, when you eat less, you weigh less. Get rid of excess fat and live longer. ODRINEX costs $1.00 and is sold on the GUARANTEE. If not satisfied for any reason just return the package to your druggist and get your full money back. No questions asked. ODRINEX is sold with this guarantee by: Rex & Derrick, 878 Main St., Millersville, Pa.

East Stroudsburg Bible School Slated June 15-26

EAST STROUDSBURG — The East Stroudsburg Community Vacation Bible School will be held in the East Stroudsburg Methodist Church, June 15 through June 26, with daily sessions Monday through Friday from 9 to 11:15 a.m.

Three buses will be available for the rural routes used during the last four years. Schedules for departure and route of travel will be given later.

Rev. Harold Eaton, the host pastor anticipates a full house. Rev. William Wunder has arranged for two half hour radio broadcasts, and Rev. Norman Savage has enlisted a large staff of teachers.

The department heads are as follows: Nursery, Mrs. Carolyn Richards; beginners, Mrs. Charles Patterson; Primary, Mrs. Clifford Kintner; Juniors, Mrs. Russell Durand; Teens, Rev. Mr. John Gaertner.

Thirty other assistants have been enlisted to serve the daily attendance which averages more than 300 children.

Eastburg Teachers Elect Aides

EAST STROUDSBURG — The annual banquet for the teachers, their wives and husbands of the East Stroudsburg Area Joint P.S.E.A. was held recently at the Fernwood, more than 150 attended. A short business meeting was held with the chairman of the Scholarship Committee, Gilbert Dunning, reporting that the Scholarship Fund has grown to the point where two annual scholarships will be awarded.

The association will now sponsor the Ruth Flory Award to a deserving girl graduate who expects to enter the teaching profession, and also a Memorial Award to a deserving boy graduate who expects to enter the teaching profession. Each award will be for $100.

Guests of honor were five retired teachers of the East Stroudsburg Jointure; Charlotte Shupp, Ruth McGill, Sue Rockefeller, Edith Courtright, and Daisy Cron.

A moment of silent tribute was held for the memories of Theodore Miller, former Jr. High principal who died last fall, and Robert Neyhart, former Jr. High English instructor who died last summer.

Association officers elected for the 1964-65 school year were: Kay Butz, president;

Paupack Senior Awarded Senatorial Scholarship

HAWLEY — Van Eckes, son of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel R. Eckes and a senior at Wallenpaupack Area Joint High School, Hawley, Pa., has been notified that he has received the four-year scholarship awarded in the senatorial district of Pike County.

The scholarship provides a total of $800, consisting of $200 each year for four academic years of study.

John Lambert, vice president; Jean Hythehead, secretary; and Dolores Lesone, treasurer.

Eckes competed against 11,000 high school seniors in the state for 180 awards made on the basis of performance on the State Scholarship Examination given on November 7, 1963.

In the fall, he will enter Pennsylvania State University to study architectural engineering.

A letter of congratulations was sent to Eckes at his home in Paupack, by George W. Hoffman, acting superintendent of schools of the Pennsylvania Department of Public Instruction, Harrisburg.

Typhoid Hits Scotland

ABERDEEN, Scotland (AP)—Health officials reported 64 new cases of typhoid in Aberdeen this week. This was the largest 24-hour rise in cases since a typhoid epidemic began 11 days ago and it raised fears that a new wave in the outbreak had begun.

The new surge of cases brought to 224 the number of confirmed victims in hospitals. Another 17 persons were suspected of having typhoid.

There were reports of scattered cases elsewhere in Scotland.

HERE ARE LOTS MORE REASONS WHY YOU, TOO, CAN ENJOY YOURSELF DURING THE CLASSIFIED SALE AT A. C. MILLER FURNITURE

CHAIRS

Last week we advertised we had sold almost 300 recliners in the preceding year. This claim raised some questioning eyebrows. Well, we went back through our invoice file and counted. We sold exactly 284 recliners at A. C. Miller Furniture. This year we should sell even more. Why? The answer is obvious—large selection and good prices because of volume buying.

You'll find every kind of recliner at A. C. Miller Furniture. Here are a few that were just recently marked down. Three floor sample off the floor recliner. Colonial in tan tapestry. Reg. $119 now $90. French provincial with blue vinyl damask-like cover. Reg. $119—$85. Contemporary slim line with walnut trim. Reg. $119. One only in brown $85. An off the floor recliner is one without that bulky look. It's hard to tell these chairs are recliners until you sit in one and lean back.

One of the best gifts that says "Happy Father's Day" is a reclining chair. The time to lay away a chair for Father's Day is right now. We'll be glad to hold your selection free of any charge and deliver right in time for Father's Day. Now is the time to select your chair because of the savings you'll make right now during our classified sale. Here are a few examples. Reg. $61.95 nylon and plastic recliner $48. Reg. $90. Strato-recliner in Vinello. Gold or green just $79. Reg. $129 Swing King recliner. Metallic blue color. A chair so comfortable, Dad will fall asleep immediately and won't even notice the color. You'll notice the savings though. Floor Sample just $85. Reg. $89 Strato-recliner in green or brown nylon and plastic combination just $69. Select your chair now for Father's Day—the blissful smile of Dad as he relaxes will be your reward throughout the years.

Recliner rockers are one of the newer types of reclining chairs. If you like a platform rocker, they do just fine. If you like to sit with your feet propped up, the chair has a special position for this too. If you like to lay way back and snooze, there's nothing better. We have four of this type of recliner which we got in last fall when recliner rockers were just becoming popular. We've discovered since then these styles are no word heaters. Reg. $129 to $149. These chairs are comfortable, are made up in durable materials and we're sure you'll be proud to have one of them in your home. If you would, the Classified Sale price will be just $95.

Most of the traditional chairs we sell are custom covered to our customer's order. Our business has been good on this type of chair but that doesn't help us change our floor samples as we like to do. All our floor samples are reduced during the Classified Sale. Fruitwood finish French Provincial barrel back occasional chair. Green or bronze Reg. $49.95 now $37. Extra large fan back chair covered in nylon tapestry. Loose foam and dacron cushion with the plush feel of down. Reg. $109—Now $75—Traditional chair covered in the finest imported Italian tapestry. Mahogany wood trim. Reg. $109 just $75—Green damask traditional chair. Fruitwood trim Reg. $80—Now $60.

Vivid purple Vinyl occasional chair.

If you'd like vivid Vinello in your home, we'll give you much money off original price. Purple plastic vivid Vinello chair. Reg. $109—$25.

DANISH LIVING ROOM

In the long run you always pay for your mistakes. There's no question about it. These Danish sofas and chairs were certainly mistakes. So we pay for our errors but the rewards are yours. 3 pc. Danish grouping. Green sofa with curved walnut arms and 2 brown chairs that don't exactly match but will look fine together with this sofa. The whole group regularly adds up to $163, but you can buy all 3 pieces for only $100.

Two piece Danish style living room with loose foam seat and back cushions. Walnut steam bent arms (you'll have to come in to find out what steam bent arms are—no words will describe them), coral solid and stripe combination $194. Both pieces now $110.

This is our best selling Danish sofa. Over the last year we've probably sold a dozen of them. The sofa has a beautifully styled walnut frame and is covered in a blue stripe material. It's about time we change the floor sample and show some of the newer fabrics available. So you can now buy our Hilaria best selling sofa at just $95, regularly $139. We hope you like blue stripes because it's just the floor sample at this special price.

We've got a Danish reclining chair which requires a little bit of manual dexterity and coordination to operate correctly. It's got five reclining positions and sits quite comfortably in each position. You work it like this—There's a button on the side which you push down. Then you slide forward or backward with your body. Then you—Oh heck. Come in and see the chair. If you think you can work it, you can buy this recliner and ottoman for just $45. Regularly $79.

Would you like your child to be literate and well educated? You can give him the proper start in life with this French Provincial crib by Thayer. With this crib to inspire baby, he may be spouting French phrases before he's a year old. To insure this though, we'd advise hiring a French nursemaid, too. How much it costs to hire one we don't know, but we do know this Thayer French Provincial crib in Antique white is a good buy at just $51. It was $129.50. Floor sample only.

Many New Items! Lots More Unadvertised Specials

In The Store. Come In Now!

OUT THEY GO! Floor Samples, one, two few of a kind items! All our old timers, white elephants, buying mistakes to be cleared out at bargain prices. We want these off our floor and we're ready to prove it. Your buy of a lifetime may be here... READ EVERY ITEM. Who knows? Maybe at these prices, we might even find a few manufacturers who'll be glad to buy their furniture back!

TAKE UP TO 36 MONTHS TO PAY

No Money Down If You Wish. Free Delivery and Storage

Swivel wheel California type stroller by Hedstrom. Deluxe style with peek-a-boo draft shield. (What's a peek-a-boo draft shield? A piece of material which can be lifted from the hood over the back to make a shield against drafts through which you can see the baby and play peek-a-boo if you like that kind of game.) This stroller was $23.95. Now just $17. Three only in gold.

One folding stroller by Thayer. Last one in a model that was quite popular. It's got a shackle gear, reclining back and even has a full draft shield that unfolds to protect baby. Floor sample only. Reg. $23.95 just $17. Two lift out carriages. You can use it as a carriage or lift out the body and, Voila! a car bed. We have several new models which are leaving these in the dust. To shake the dust from their wheels, the one which was $34.95 is now $19. The one which was $37.95 is now $21.

OUTDOOR

Single webbed gliders have been a drag on the market. We have three you can drag home for just $9. That's the price of a good aluminum folding chair. These were $16.95. But take it home yourself and assemble it yourself and the gliders are just $9.

Ever buy summer furniture and then find one or two seasons later that you are very unhappy with it, because it just didn't hold up? Well, we've got summer furniture with the unhappiness taken out. It costs a few dollars more than the cheapest but those few dollars add up to years of extra wear. Here are two examples of our happy summer furniture. Bunting quality innerspring cushion chaise lounge just $24.95. Bunting glider with new ball glide construction just $39.95. You'll be smiling with these years from now.

Prices on aluminum webbed folding furniture really get kicked around. Sometimes it's amazed us to see how low prices can get on folding chairs and chaises. However, when we see the actual merchandise, we aren't amazed any longer. That's why the cheapest folding chairs we carry are $4.95 each and the cheapest folding chaise we carry is $8.95. If you want to buy a set of a chaise and two chairs, the price is then just $17.95. These all have sturdy frames, hardwood squashed arms, strong webbing, heavy hardware and web separators on the chaise so the webs won't bunch together. We're sure if you look around, you'll find ones that are cheaper, but we'll guarantee you something with ours. They won't fall apart the first time you sit on them—nor the eight hundredth time either. If you want good outdoor folding aluminum webbed furniture, be sure to see us. If you want only the cheapest price, see somebody else. We'd rather you be unhappy at them, not us.

ODDS 'N ENDS

A colonial occasional piece that never looked right to us. It comes from a company from whom we buy a lot of maple barrel planters and magazine racks. It a weak moment we bought two of these and were sorry from the moment they were opened. Black finish combination ash tray, server and magazine rack (that's no misprint either). Reg. $15.95 now $8. In an even weaker moment we bought two ice buckets and glass sets from the same outfit. Reg. $10.95, now just $5.

Set of can-can girl plaques. Wyco 2 for $11.95. Now $1. Wyco Wall Clock with gold swirl molding. Reg. $49.95, $20. Brass mail boxes reg. $9.95 just $3 each. Various other wall pieces at similar reductions.

16x24 sure sounded like an adequate size for a mirror, but when we hung his size next to 2 brass mail boxes reg. $9.95 just $3 each. Various other wall pieces at similar reductions.

If you want the finest door mirror available, we also have some Pittsburgh Plate Glass mirrors made by Bassett. These ordinarily would sell for $24, but we got a special buy just recently on the 16x60 size so the price is only $14.88.

It's amazing what you'll find when you houseclean. We found a whole stack of boxes marked $3.95 on the outside when we did. Inside we found of all things—bath scales. Help us really house clean and get these out of here. The price will be $2.50.

TABLES, DESKS, ETC.

If you appreciate the better things in life, we're sure you'll appreciate some of the better tables we have on sale now. If way bookcases have been selling recently. In the interests of cultural advancement (or something like that) there thing) we'll cut the prices on our book cases way down. 24 inch size with sliding glass doors reg. $25.95 just $16.00. Other sizes at equally large reductions. We hope you'll go out and buy some good books with the money you save.

If you appreciate the finer things in life but feel you can't afford them even at low sale prices, you can buy a set of 2 step tables and one coffee table with plastic tops for just $16. We won't call these fine tables but they come out to only 5 1/2 dollars each. No, you can't buy them individually, only in the 3 piece set. Our register can't print a sale for $5,333.33 ad infinitum.

Maple finish desk. Formica top. One only. Light weight but adequate construction. We've brought the price down from the heavyweight division to just $35. Full 7 drawer, kneehole style. Lined oak kneehole desk. Reg. $17.95. Two only at just $34.

If you like the genuine article, we have some real marble top Danish modern walnut tables. No imitation marble tops here, just solid weighty marble. We've got one step table, 2 end tables, 2 coffee tables and 2 commode tables. Regularly $54.95, now only $34—each.

Walnut finish student desks. Large 18x40 top with 3 roomy drawers, one file drawer. Reg. $35.95, but if you'll overlook some of the small imperfections in finish we've been finding on them, there are four of these in stock that will go for just $25.

Solid cherry end tables that sounded like a terrific buy. We really should have known better. The tables are really solid cherry, are quite heavy, and are constructed well. But the finishes certainly leave something to be desired. That leaves us with 2 step tables, an end table, one coffee table, 3 round lamp tables and a picture window table. All solid cherry, reg. $34.95 to $44.95. Now you can have any one of them for $18. If you'll remind us three times as you buy them to be more careful in our buying habits. You'll have money, get a very solid table and maybe we'll both learn something.

We hope the joys of reading aren't being forgotten. It certainly seems that way with the tables we have on sale now. If way bookcases have been selling recently. In the interests of cultural advancement (or something like that) there thing) we'll cut the prices on our book cases way down. 24 inch size with sliding glass doors reg. $25.95 just $16.00. Other sizes at equally large reductions. We hope you'll go out and buy some good books with the money you save.

Homing pigeons. Some hand tooled leather top mahogany tables. These nicely made tables seem to like their home in our store. We've got two each of step tables, coffee tables and commode tables and round drum tables. They're regularly $29.95 each. But for just $18—each you can bring them to roost in your living room.

Maybe it's a good sign. We have a group of colonial antique pine end tables, desks and side pieces which sell very well. The only item in the whole group which hasn't moved is a gun cabinet. In the fond hope that maybe this means the world is becoming a more peaceful place, we'll close out this regular $89 gun cabinet for only $55—and we won't buy any more.

BEDDING AND BEDS

Do you have guests occasionally? We have aluminum cots which fold compactly, are lightweight and have a foam mattress. These are on sale for just $11.88. These are good for occasional use but if you want a folding cot which is much sturdier, try our steel framed innerspring rollaway cot which is only $28.

We sell a lot of maple bunk beds. In fact you can buy one during our Classified Sale for as little as $79—complete for two mattresses, 2 springs, 2 beds, ladder and guard rail. Because the maple bunk beds have sold so well, we thought it might be worthwhile to try something different. So we did—a brass bunk bed decorated with walnut in the shape of ship's wheels. We won't shed any tears on your shoulder, but you can have this particular bunk bed complete for just $58.88. A whopping reduction from its regular price of $109. And believe us, we'll stick to maple bunk beds in the future.

Complete Hollywood bed. Box spring, mattress, set of legs and plastic headboard just $46—The best we can say for this set is that you can sleep on it. Of course, if you don't want to be bothered too much by guests, you can put this in your spare room. Twin size only at $46.

RUGS AND CARPETS

One of the heaviest, plushy feeling carpets we've ever seen for this low price is our Acrylic

LIVING ROOM

The color of this 2 piece suite is supposed to be beige. If you ask us it's anything but beige. So we'll call it one caramel colored 2 pc. modern living room reduced from $219 to $149. Good wearing nylon frieze cover. When you get it in your home you can play a game called "Name the Color" and give prizes for the most original answers.

Several 9x12 floral pattern rugs that have been here long enough to go to seed. Mages all wool reg. $129, now $75. Rug $89. wool and nylon just $68. Several patterns at this price. We've cut the prices on these 9x12 floral rugs in hopes that some garden lover will be happy to transplant them in his living room.

Waffle rug pads in heavy 32 oz. weight. These are the $9.95 kind that most women say make a lot of dust. Maybe at $5.88 you won't notice the dust. Carpet stair pads are a good-looking, inexpensive answer to covering your stairs. Made of remnants of better quality carpet, you can get enough for 13 steps and 14 risers in every set. Sale priced at $8.88 per set, they were $14.95.

If you ever see a 9x12 oval braided rug advertised, you always have to remember that this type of rug is always approximate sized. A 9x12 braided rug is never a full 9x12. We have some braided rugs from an honest rug mill. They're not marked "approximate size" in small letters underneath. They're marked with their exact size "8x11". We have four 8x11's that are going for just $26. One in blue, 2 in gold and one in tan.

LAMPS

Lamps are many times the bane of the existence of a furniture store. You need lots and lots of them to properly stock a store. (We probably have over 200 different styles. There are really too many to count. Styles change so fast and so often, it makes your head spin. Sometimes the only way to divest yourself of excess stock is to take your lumps and force a smile. Now's the time. We're taking our lumps on lamps, but the smile isn't forced. Check our stock. You'll find many a table, floor and pole lamps priced at 1/2 to 3/4 their regular price. And even at these price levels, we'll be happy to see them go out.

DINETTES

Antique white wrought iron 5 piece dinette. Fancy scroll work on the table and chair legs. Gold vinyl covered seats and backs. 36x60 extension table in gold and white finish. This set has scared most people away at $129. If you appreciate this type of style, we're sure you'll get used to it in your home at just $73.

A good solid dinette with big 36x60 table and 6 chairs in chrome. No fancy flature, but it's sold well with us at its regular price of $69. We have ten of them and that's just too many right now. If you want to assemble the sets yourself (that means putting the legs on the table and the seats and backs on the chairs), you can have a sturdy 7 piece chrome dinette for just $49. Don't feel up to assembling a dinette yourself? Then the price will be just $55 and we'll set up the dinette for you.

BEDROOM SUITES

Just close your eyes and think of this. A three piece bedroom with 56" triple dresser, plate glass mirror, large chest and panel bed. All dust proofed and center guided drawers. Formica tops that are almost an inch thick, solid core sides that are an inch thick. Very heavy construction so that a 3 piece suite weighs over 400 pounds. Does all this sound good to you at $259? Well now, open your eyes and you'll find why the price has been reduced to $158. The style of the suite is kind of like a mixed green salad. A little Italian Provincial with a colonial feeling topped off with traditional handker and a marble top traditional formica top. It's seasoned with a dash of French finish. Maybe the person who designed this bedroom couldn't make up his mind so he tried a little bit of everywhere. In any event you can get a terrific buy on a well constructed bedroom suite that should give years of wear and use. Just put it in a dark bedroom. All 3 pieces reg. $259, now $158.

Bassett open stock bedroom in a contemporary mahogany finish. The suite was brought out last July, sold well off our floor. Bassett then advertised this same suite in a half dozen national magazines in October and continued the doggone style in November. We now have one complete suite, bookcase bed, double dresser and mirror, chest and nite stand. The open stock prices add up to $230. If you'll take the whole shebang the price will be $160.

The furniture business is very competitive on the manufacturing level as well as on the retail level. Over the years, there have been many companies making cedar chests. The only one left making a quality cedar chest is Lane. This fact is a tribute to their product. A. C. Miller has a large selection of Lane cedar chests starting at a low $40. Because of our quantity buying from Lane you can buy a 43" inch walnut cedar chest with the same quality features as all Lane chests for just $40. Other chests in stock in grey mahogany, cherry and maple.

Early Bird Award To Cresco Post

CRESO—Herman R. Smeltz, American Legion 30th District Deputy Commander, recently presented the Early Bird Award to the Evans - Blitz Post 922, American Legion, Cresco.

The award is for going over the top in its membership drive.

Smeltz also presented a gold membership badge for the commander's hat and a silver bar for the post's membership plaque. The badge and bar represent a 100 per cent membership for the post.

The awards presented by Smeltz mark the third time this year the Evans - Blitz Post has received notice for its work. The trophies and plaque are on display in the post's trophy room. Smeltz was accompanied by Richard Rugg, 30th District sergeant at arms.

Hoover Reported Up And About

NEW YORK (AP) — Former President Herbert Hoover, 89, was reported "up and about" this week in an apparent good recovery from an illness last February that almost cost his life.

"The president has recuperated very well," a spokesman said at the hotel suite residence of the former president.

Hoover became seriously ill more than three months ago with a respiratory infection and bleeding from a kidney.

He had undergone surgery in August 1962 for removal of a cancerous tumor of the intestinal tract and last June suffered anemia from intestinal bleeding.

Mrs. Talman Presides At WSCS Meet

East Stroudsburg — Mrs. Franklin Talman, president of the Women's Society of Christian Service of the East Stroudsburg Methodist Church, presided at her final meeting last week when new officers were elected.

The new officers, presented by Mrs. Harold C. Eaton, of the nominating committee, were president, Mrs. Harry Smith; vice president, Mrs. John Detrick and Mrs. Townsend Tuttle; secretary, Mrs. Harry Sutton; treasurer, Miss Mary Kistler; local church activities, Mrs. Franklin Talman.

During Mrs. Talman's administration the WSCS completed a number of special projects including the furnishing of a Ladies Lounge and renovations and completion of the worship chapel.

At the meeting, Mrs. Edward Staples reported on the conference in Philadelphia and Mrs. Cyrus Smith on the discussion of the Civil Rights Bill at the meeting of the United Church Women.

Mrs. Louis Johnson was in charge of the closing devotional service held before the meeting adjourned to the social room where refreshments were served to the 75 members present by circle 6.

Community Needs Its Senior Citizens

Tannersville — The many ways in which senior citizens can use their time and talents in service to their community and to individuals were outlined in the program presented by Mrs. James White at the meeting of the Tannersville Methodist Women's Society of Christian Service at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Howell.

Theme of the program was "Our Later Years — A Time for Responsible Living." She also reported on the homes sponsored by the Methodist Board of Missions. Mrs. Horace Werkheiser led the devotion.

The recent rummage sale was reported profitable and members were asked to plan for a special program for the 25th anniversary of the WSCS in September. The next meeting will be held at the church, June 29.

Mrs. Howell served refreshments to Mrs. Charles Husted, Mrs. James White, Mrs. John Flynn, Mrs. Albert Beseker, Mrs. Ben Howell, Mrs. Roger Shook, Mrs. Joseph Legier, Mrs. Horace Werkheiser, Mrs. Doris Thomas, Mrs. Fred Angemyre, and Mrs. Frances Beseker.

Wesley Chapel WSCS At Landmesser's

Bartonsville — The Wesley Chapel WSCS met at the home of Mrs. Louis Landmesser for the May meeting. The newly installed president, Mrs. Elwood Ernst, presided.

Mrs. Arndt led the meditation, "Our Methodist Heritage." The Scripture lesson was read by Mrs. Leon Price.

Refreshments were served by Mrs. Landmesser.

Members attending were Mrs. Steward Walters, Mrs. Leon Price, Mrs. Clarence Walters, Mrs. Robert Bonser, Mrs. Fred Fralley, Mrs. Wilson Lee, Mrs. Louise Selgriff, Mrs. Louis Landmesser and Mrs. James N. Canfield Jr.

In camping and other activities in this area, before moving to Netcong in September of 1961.

In New Jersey, she has served as leader of both junior and senior troops; is director of Day Camp at Netcong and Stangehouse Councils; helps on the camp committee at Camp Sioux, High Point, between New York and New Jersey; and is a Unit Leader.

Legion Variety Show Reported Successful

Mountainhome — The recent variety show sponsored jointly by the American Legion, Evans Blitz Post, 922 and auxiliary, was pronounced a success at a recent meeting of the auxiliary at the Barrett Branch YMCA.

Proceeds from the show, directed by Mrs. Verna Mortimer and with Ben Varvel as master of ceremonies, will be used by the post and auxiliary for the building fund.

Mrs. Lydia Christenson, president, received a report by Mrs. Jo Meeks, corresponding secretary, that a letter of thanks had been sent from the Wilkes-Barre Veterans Administration Hospital for the auxiliary's contributions of lap robes, magazines and phonograph records.

A request from National headquarters for Alaskan relief was honored.

Mrs. Bea Jones was made chairman of the Poppy Day program which was held Saturday throughout the township. Mrs. Edna Reisenwitz gave a report on the past year concerning the units activities. A second report on child welfare, submitted by Mrs. Bernard Varvel, will also go to the state department.

It was announced that the auxiliary's adopted boy in Scotland and School will graduate in June. The group will send a gift for the occasion.

Daughters, Mothers At Breakfast

Mount Pocono — The communion breakfast at Chestnut Grove Lodge, Swiftwater, after the 10 a.m. mass was sponsored by the Altar and Rosary Society of St. Mary of the Mount Church and was attended by 75 mothers and daughters.

Mrs. Albert Snyder welcomed the group. Mrs. Michael Natshyn, president, introduced the guest speaker, Rev. W. J. Pakutka STB, chaplain and professor at Marywood College, Scranton. He spoke of the importance of religion in education.

Rev. William Cusick, moderator, told of the work of members to secure and support the Pocono Missions School.

Three Birthdays Celebrated At Budge Home

Saylorsburg — Three birthdays were celebrated at a party held at the home of Mrs. Dorothy Budge on Sunday. In addition to her own birthday, those honored included her sister, Emma Buskirk, and Hugh Barton of Bethlehem.

Other guests were Edward Ranson, Trenton, N.J.; Earl Budge, Owego, N.Y.; Mrs. Hugh Barton, Bethlehem; Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Budge, Freehold; Mrs. Mildred Fritz, Allentown; Mr. and Mrs. Frank Schick, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Correll, Mrs. Helen Boyer, Mrs. Earl Budge and daughter, Sheri Lynn, El Serfass and Mrs. Anna Serfass.

MISS BARBARA JEAN BURCHELL, a former student at Pleasant Valley High School, will graduate from Ferris High School, Jersey City on June 17 and plans to attend IBM School after graduation. She is a member of the Summit Ave. Baptist Church, is a Sunday school teacher and member of the choir. She was a member of the Youth For Christ for four years in Stroudsburg.

Faithful Workers Receive Aprons From Hostess

Saylorsburg — The Faithful Workers Class of Hamilton Union Sunday School were recently entertained at the home of George Metzgar with Mrs. Henrietta Hobbs presiding.

The class placed flowers in the altar vases on May 31 in memory of their deceased members: Mrs. Grace Dennis, Mrs. Blanche Slutter, Mrs. Sarah Hartman, Mrs. Mayme Hahn, Mrs. Libbie Werkheiser, Mrs. Bella Young, Mrs. Florence Werkheiser, Mrs. Bertha Andre, Mrs. Lulu Smith, Mrs. Bessie Metzgar, Mrs. Bertha Thomas and their former teacher, Dr. William S. Lesh.

Mrs. Elsie Kresge, hostess, presented each one present with a handmade apron she had made of different styles, designs and colors. Prizes were awarded to Mrs. Lucy Rinker, Mrs. Lydia Howerton, Rev. Adan Bohner, Robert Rinker and George Metzgar.

Refreshments were served to Anna Huhn, Mrs. Annette Huhn, Mrs. Rosa Butts, Mrs. Emma Hahn, Mrs. Lucy Rinker, Mrs. Sadie Kintz, Mrs. Lydia Howerton, Mrs. Ruth Shoemaker, Mrs. Ethel Rinker, Mrs. Elsie Kresge, Rev. Adan Bohner, Robert Rinker and George Metzgar.

Mrs. Kresge Entertains

Saylorsburg — Mrs. Willard Kresge entertained at a party at her home on Sunday.

Guests included Mrs. Howard Mackes and daughter, Judy, Palmerton; Mrs. Kay Frable, Kunkletown; Mrs. D. Allen Meixsell, Mrs. Irene Frable of Meixsell Valley; Mrs. Joan

Paul Pipher Two-School PTA Head

Bushkill — Paul Pipher was elected president of the Bushkill-Middle Smithfield Parent Teachers Assn. at their final meeting of the school held last week at the Bushkill School.

Other officers elected were James Dolan and James Howley, vice presidents; Albert Smith Jr., treasurer; Mrs. Richard DePue, recording secretary; and Mrs. Harry Neyhart, social secretary.

Herbert Martin, retiring president, called the meeting to order. The group voted to donate $25.10 to the Eastern Pocono's Little League. Committees were appointed for a field day to be held at the Middle Smithfield School. A field trip was announced for the first and second grades.

Mr. and Mrs. James Dolan served refreshments.

French For Children At Le Coq D'or

Stroudsburg — Classes in Conversational French for children from 6 to 14 will open July 7 at Le Coq D'or on Beacon Hill, Chipperfield Drive.

Mme. Rosamonde Anderson who teaches French in the Laboratory School, East Stroudsburg State College, will be in charge of the classes which are held twice a week through August.

Information about the classes may be obtained by calling Mrs. Anderson between 9 and 10 a.m.

Social Time For Ever-Welcomes

Hamilton Square — Games marked the meeting of the Ever Welcome Class of Christ Hamilton Church held at the home of Mrs. Ruth Cauley following the meeting conducted by the president, Mildred Hahn. Mrs. Hahn read poems for the Spring season.

Prizes were won by Evelyn Smith, Evelyn Kunkle, Olive Dennis, Ruth Ann Paynter and Jean Anthony.

Mrs. Marianne Kjar assisted Mrs. Cauley in serving refreshments. Others present were Gwendolyn Hahn, Mildred Hahn, Martha Jean Loiz, Elise Shaffer, Patricia Hazara and Nancy Hahn.

The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Evelyn Kunkle with Mrs. Arlene Wolf assisting.

THE WYCKOFF SHOPPER

If I do say so myself, our Keystone Room looks beautiful with its "coat of many colors" in the form of quilts, quilts, quilts. When I wrote yesterday's column, I certainly did not mean to omit mention of any one of them, for they are all exquisite... and even after the column was in type, other quilts arrived. Mrs. Adelaide Volkert brought several, Flower Garden, Double Wedding Ring, Lone Star, and one which she couldn't identify, but which one of our visitors tells me was called "the nine square" because each block was composed of nine squares (or triangles that formed nine squares).

Mrs. Corey Bush, Mrs. Eugene Serfass, our store's Clem Croasdale, Claire Reichard, and Van Serfass, Walter Wyckoff's wife, and probably a few others whose names evade me at the moment, brought in some of their cherished possessions for display.

Probably the most frequent comment one hears when pausing to look over the display is, "What a shame people do not take time for these things today. Everything today is television. Young people don't even bother to learn these arts of the past." This, of course, is generally true... but not altogether so. There are still young people who sew and weave... but it is no longer a necessity to do so. And there are still hundreds upon hundreds of people who appreciate these heirlooms of the past, and dream of making something of the sort to pass down to their children, grandchildren, and great grandchildren.

The women of Grace Lutheran Church tells me they are quilting eight quilts for one woman who has made one for each of her grandchildren. How proud they will be of them one day! My neighbor tells me she has pieced several, but has never had them quilted, and was interested in knowing that there are still groups of women who do this work. Still another neighbor tells me her mother has recently made a number of quilts and her own daughter is working upon one.

Here at Wyckoff's we sell all those things essential for the making of a quilt, including some of the most charming printed fabrics any seamstress could desire. Some of them are in the very colors and designs typical when Aunt Dinah was holding her quilting parties and Nellie was being escorted home.

And while we are being nostalgic, I must say I've never spent a more enjoyable or more informative quarter hour than during the time Alice Wicks gave her talk on "The Romance of Lighting in Colonial Days" this past Monday evening. (She will repeat it Friday evening at 7:30). As Alice says, the candlelight of those many years ago, was hardly the fragrant, delightfully flickering, flattering candlelight of today. Animal fairs were smelly; ventilation was bad, and there was an ever-present threat to the safety of the children and the house itself in this fiery illumination which had to be used in every room. She illustrates her talk delightfully with a display of all manner of implements and lamps used through the years.

Our Keystone Room is always a place of interest... but right now it is rich with sentiment, and it's as wholesome as a teenager with a scrubbed face and a sprinkling of freckles. When you shop Wyckoff's this weekend, come up and see for yourself!

"TEA CAKE LOAVES" go as happily to picnics as to the formal tea table with a subtle spice flavor. Served with fresh fruits in season or garnished with nuts they make a spring treat, and, if you can, save one to store in the freezer.

Picnic Cakes That Care Well Even Though Cook Doesn't

By Linda Pipher

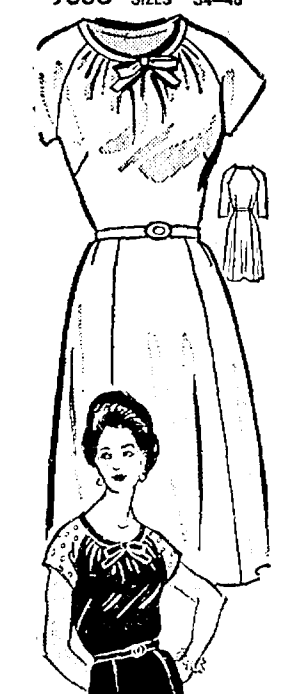

Daily Record Home Economist Stroudsburg — Preparing for the weekend in the woods, I carefully packed extra shoes and warm clothes for Billy. I repeatedly warned him that if he caught a cold after just getting over the measles he would really be sick.

As he stepped in and out of the boat I cautioned him to step to the middle so he wouldn't topple over the side. Guess who my shoo-bone sharply against the side but after the immediate pain was gone and the bleeding was stopped I thought it was O. K.

We took a long walk through the woods and crossed a creek by jumping on stones sticking out of the water. Guess who missed a stone? Me, of course.

By the time we got back to the cabin I was cold and weary and my leg hurt. It was one of the few times I was glad I had the same size feet as Bill's, but I made quite a sight limping around in his shoes.

So it was a battle-scarred Mother who returned home Sunday night. But we had fun and will go again, for it's a peaceful rest to sit in a chair and watch the ducks, muskrats, and deer. It gives you enough energy to face another week! But the next time I'm going to take a cake along that will save and stay fresh for the weekend, for it's a good nibbler and late snack when you're playing rummy and rummy and more rummy.

Loaf cakes make good picnic cakes. This first cake flavored with instant tea can be made a day or two ahead and it retains its flavor and pound-cake texture; it will slice better, too.

Tea Cake Loaves

- 1 cup soft butter or margarine (1/2 pound)
- 1 cup granulated sugar
- 1 cup sifted confectioners' sugar
- 6 egg yolks (3/4 cup)
- 2 tablespoons grated lemon rind
- 1 teaspoon vanilla extract
- 3 cups sifted cake flour
- 2 teaspoons double-acting baking powder
- 1 cup milk
- 2 tablespoons instant tea
- 6 egg whites (1 1/2 cup)

Preheat oven to 350. In large bowl, with mixer at medium speed, beat butter or margarine until creamy, gradually beat in sugars until creamy. Then gradually add egg yolks and beat until very light and fluffy, about 7 minutes. Add lemon rind and vanilla extract.

In small bowl, sift together flour and baking powder. Gradually stir milk into instant tea. At low speed, blend in flour-mixture alternately with tea-milk, in three parts, starting and ending with flour. In small bowl, beat egg whites until stiff but not dry; then carefully fold into batter. Turn into greased 8 1/2" x 4 1/2" by 2 1/2" foil loaf pans and bake about one hour or until cake tester inserted in center comes out clean. Cool on rack in pans 10 minutes, then invert cakes on rack; remove pans and cool. Makes 2 loaves. Garnish with almond strips as shown in the photo, if desired. (Cake can be frozen).

If you're in a hurry but still want to make a good loaf cake, try this recipe of Leona Fisher's. You'll like this so much you'll make it year round.

Leona's Orange Loaf Cake

Sift together into bowl:

- 1 1/2 cups all purpose flour (1 1/2 cups plus 2 tablespoons)
- 1 1/2 cups sugar
- 2 teaspoons salt
- 1 cup shortening
- 1 cup blend (grated rind and juice from 1 large orange, plus water to make the 1 1/2 cup)

Beat together four minutes. Bake in a greased loaf pan for 60 minutes in a 350 deg. oven. When Mrs. Elizabeth Harmon was visiting her daughter, Susan Kovachik, in Newport, Rhode Island, a neighbor of Susan's gave her this recipe. It's a refreshing loaf cake that would suit "any" will.

Susan's Lemon Cake

Just Between Us --

Conditioned by almost three weeks of sunny weather, a lot of people had a lot of trouble locating their rain hats when yesterday half-hearted drizzle turned into real rain. Like finding boots in mid-summer or the fly swatter in February, we were all out of the habit of being prepared for rain.

It was a sneaky sort of shower. We've become used to the scarce facilities approach with a great massing of clouds and wind and brandishing of trees, and then a shame-faced sneaking away with much rumbling but no water. This was different: a sort of flitting in and then dumping the water bucket on the runway.

If casual gardeners want to credit any one person they might think Joyce Pederson, who yesterday willed the water down after Henri Baldwin had had five successive one-putt greens in a loudly contested golf match.

Speaking of gardeners, I was tickled to see that included in the itinerary of the Pocono Garden Club, in addition to the historical and botanical wonders Washington's Crossing State Park and Bowman's Hill Wild Flower Preserve, they have also included a visit to Peddler's Village.

Gift and specialty shops have a fascination that even dedicated gardeners can't resist. I guess, especially when there's a tea shop, too. Besides they might find a lucky to wind up a weewaw for their garden. I've been hearing rumors that a similar shopping center is being contemplated for this area.

Somewhere I have a feeling that we'd better concentrate on our familiar summer routine harder than ever before — picnic at all our favorite places, hike our favorite trails, swim where we always have, because I'm afraid — maybe even by next summer — things may have changed beyond all recognition.

Portland Woman's Club Installation At Banquet

Portland—Installation of officers marked the annual banquet of the Portland Woman's Club this week at the Pen and Sword, East Stroudsburg, with Mrs. Raymond Beck, retiring president, welcoming the 50 members and guests, who included the county presidents.

Five Area Seniors To Get Lafayette College Degrees

EASTON — Five area seniors of Lafayette College will receive degrees at Lafayette's 129th commencement exercise Friday.

James G. Kitchen III, son of Dr. and Mrs. James G. Kitchen II of the Mohican in Pocono Lake is a 1960 graduate of the Stony Brook School, Stony Brook, N.Y. He will receive a Bachelor of Arts degree with a major in biology.

At Lafayette he was assistant instructor in introductory biology course, treasurer, elected Phi Beta Kappa, clerk of session in College Church, secretary of the social dormitory, vice president of Maroon Key society, member of Pre-Medical and Fine Arts societies, won Porter Bible Prize and Barge Oratorical Contest.

To Study Medicine

Kitchen will study medicine at the University of Pennsylvania.

For the past year Kitchen and fellow biology honors student Richard S. Koplin in Roslyn Heights, N.Y. have engaged in a study of the parasites of common white suckers, taken from the Bushkill Creek, which flows into the Delaware River at Easton.

The project involved the catching of large numbers of the fish with the aid of an electric shocking apparatus. "This apparatus was used with the knowledge and consent of both the Pennsylvania Fish Commission and local sports clubs, which have been most understanding and helpful," Kitchen said.

He explained that the intestines of the fish were removed and examined for parasites as part of the body.

"There has been no adequate study of the parasites of Bushkill fish since the 19th century," Kitchen said. He explained that his investigations are providing information about the identity of these parasites, about the intensity of infection which they exhibit in the white sucker, and about the way in which the numbers of certain of these parasites varies with the seasons of the year. "Such information will hopefully be useful to conservationists as well as to other scientists," he added.

On March 27, Kitchen read a paper which summarized the findings of the project before a Pennsylvania Academy of Science convention at Pennsylvania State University. The paper will be published in the proceedings of the Academy in September.

Other students who will graduate on Friday are:

Robert E. Sleep Jr. son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert E. Sleep of 427 South Second St., Bangor.

"Sleep a 1960 graduate of Bangor Area Joint High School will receive a Bachelor of Science degree in mechanical engineering.

At Lafayette he was a member of American Society of Mechanical Engineers, and Fine Arts Society. He will become a service engineer with the Caterpillar Tractor Co., of Peoria, Ill.

Also, Robert G. Lundergan of Delaware Water Gap who is married to the former Anna Caporaso, of 23 Robinson Ave., Pen Argyl. They have three children: Patrick, 14; Cecelia, 12; and Susan, 10.

Lundergan is a 1943 graduate of Freeport High School in Freeport, N.Y. He will receive a Bachelor of Science degree in mechanical engineering. He completed requirements for a degree at Lafayette Evening College.

At Lafayette he was elected to Tau Beta Pi honorary engineering society. He is a product engineer with the Ronson Corp. of Delaware Water Gap.

Also Kenneth Florey, son of Mrs. Wilhelmina Florey of Pen Argyl, RD 1 and the late Leeth Florey, will receive a Arts degree with a major in English.

He is a 1960 graduate of Yonkers High School in Yonkers, N.Y. At Lafayette he was literary editor of literary magazine, member of the chess club, member of the features staff campus newspaper, and a member of Kirby Social Dormitory.

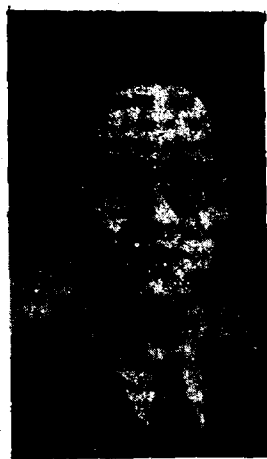

Florey plans to do graduate work in English under an assistantship at Syracuse University.

Wife Scotrun Native
Also, James E. Callisto, son of Mr. and Mrs. James P. Callisto of Allentown will receive a Bachelor of Arts degree with a major in economics.

He is married to the former Pamela D. Pearson of Scotrun. They have a son, Eric, two months old.

Callisto is a 1958 graduate of Allentown High School. At Lafayette he was a choir member, Investment Club member, and vice president of Sigma Chi.

He completed degree requirements during the past year and is currently a representative of the Equitable Life Assurance Society of the United States in Philadelphia. Callisto plans to do graduate work in business.

Drivers To Fair Warned

STROUDSBURG — Robert Singer, area representative for the Northeastern Pennsylvania Motor Club, AAA, yesterday urged all travelers to the World's Fair in New York City to have adequate insurance coverage and be familiar with driver's age - laws in New York State.

According to Singer, no one under the age of 18 is permitted to operate a motor vehicle even though he may have a valid license in his home state. Also, in New York City a driver must be 21 years old to be a lawful driver.

"Non - resident motorists who operate vehicles in New York State which are not registered in the state, are required to comply with the minimum standards under the state compulsory insurance law," Singer said.

He added, "To comply with the law the owner must have in effect a policy in the amount of $10,000 to $20,000 for personal injury and $5,000 for property damage."

Under New York law, the police must be issued by a company authorized to do business in the state or by a company that has filed a power of attorney consenting to service of process in that state.

Singer pointed out that failure to comply may result in revocation of the non-resident driving privileges in New York for a one-year period, but no criminal penalties are imposed against out-of-state, non - insured motorists.

He advises all motorists to carry proof of insurance coverage with them, even though it is not required by New York State law.

Rain-Making Dances Go

KAMPALA, Eastern Uganda (AP) — Sophisticates in Eastern Uganda's Teso district can now skip those rain-making dances. The District Council passed a law that it's no longer compulsory.

Labor Zionists Back Rights

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — The Labor Zionist Organization of America, Poale Zion, adopted a resolution this week urging support of the civil rights and war on poverty bills now before Congress.

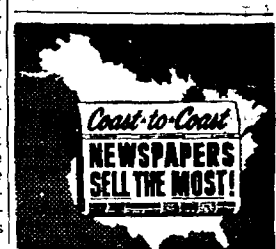

At its 60th anniversary convention, the organization also approved a resolution calling for support of the medicare bill. The LZOA scored the treatment of Russian Jewry by the Soviet government and passed several other resolutions.

Another resolution asked that the executive committee devote its immediate attention to the problem of Negro-Jewish relations, including what was termed patterns of both lawlessness and discrimination.

Plane Buyers

JAKARTA, Indonesia (AP) — An Indonesian air force purchasing mission left Wednesday for Moscow for talks on new deliveries of Soviet military planes, the official Antara news agency reported.

The mission will later visit other European countries including Switzerland, the report added.

$12,000 Settlement

SCRANTON — A $12,000 settlement of a law suit growing out of a fatal accident on Rt. 611 near Mt. Pocono on Aug. 17, 1962, was filed in Federal Court in Scranton Monday.

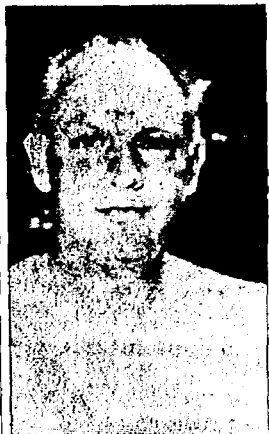

The lawsuit was started by Edgar D. Hamatic of Brooklyn, N.Y., executor of the estate of Douglas A. Hamatic, also of Brooklyn, who died in the accident.

Defendants were William E. Hardy Jr., Robert Bessecker and Lawrence Barnie Jr., all of Mt. Pocono, and the Robbins Door and Sash Co. of Scranton.

The decedent was a passenger in a truck owned by Bessecker and operated by Hardy when the vehicle collided with a tractor-trailer owned by the door and sash firm and operated by Barnie.

Atty. James E. O'Brien was counsel for the plaintiffs and Atty. Hugh J. McMenamin was counsel for the defendants.

Pen Argyl Sewer System Lauded By Councilman

Nelson Lee

PEN ARGYL — "Yes, I was on council when the original plan for a sewer system was voted on. I didn't think then, and my mind hasn't changed, that it was just another thing to spend money on. It was needed and I believe this has been proven," Nelson Lee, pin-pointed yesterday.

The Pen Argyl councilman continued, "I'm sure that there were those opposed to it before it was explained to them. But I'm sure now that most of those who opposed it are now in favor of it."

"I am a property owner and this came to mind when I voted on it. I saw a need for it and I voted for it. I have never regretted it. It is something that is a benefit to the borough."

Car Strip Theft Under Police Probe

EASTON — State police at Easton yesterday continued an investigation of the theft of parts from a wrecked car over the weekend in Upper Mount Bethel Twp.

The car was stripped while it was lying in a field along Rt. 191 where it crashed about 10:30 p.m. Friday, police said.

Taken from the car was an FM radio, hubcaps, a fuel injection system and various tools.

The medals were presented by Kenneth Fritz, supervisor of music in the high school.

"At present we do not have an organization to act as an industrial arm, but give us time and we may come up with an organization. Perhaps one of the service groups will act as the arm."

Lee is on the park committee, among several others, and he enjoys putting some time in at the park helping to clean it up and keep it in repair. He was working there when he was interviewed.

"Here is another thing we have, and I believe the people of the borough appreciate it. It is a drawing card and is something that is used by many."

"Two were injured in the crash. John E. Kivoy, 21, of Trumbull, Conn., was listed in good condition yesterday in the General Hospital of Monroe County with scrapes and a possible concussion. David Fusakio, 21, of N. 5th Street, Bangor, was released from the hospital Monday after being treated for scrapes and a possible concussion.

Police have not yet determined who was driving the car owned by Fusakio. Anthony Li-berto, Bangor, also in the car, was not injured.

G-D-S Fair Group To Meet June 17

NEWFOUNDLAND — An important meeting of the Greene-Dreher - Sterling Community Fair Association has been set for 8:30 p.m. on June 17 at the school.

A special invitation has been issued to all who have summer homes in the area or who are interested in the fair, to attend the meeting. Organizational representatives and other members of the fair association are also asked to attend.

Carroll Fetherman, president of the fair association, reminds residents of the six townships who are eligible to enter exhibits in the fair, that premium lists from last year's fair books are the same as those this year. Anyone who needs a book may contact Mr. Fetherman.

The games building is under construction at the fairgrounds, and the horse show ring is expected to be finished by July 1.

Mrs. Batory Named Cancer Society Head

ette F. Batory has been elected the 1964 president of the Monroe County Cancer Society at a meeting in the Penn-Stroud Hotel. She succeeds Dr. James Fahl.

Mrs. Batory, chairman of the 1964 cancer campaign, reported the campaign went over the quota of $8,300 by $600. John Lambert was assistant chairman and Bruce Miller, special gifts chairman.

Other new officers elected were Dr. Elmo Lilli, vice president; Blaine Rice, treasurer; and Mrs. David Nelson, secretary.

It was announced Dr. Moses Leiner has been named medical director for the third district by the state cancer society.

A service committee report showed 1,650 cancer dressings have been received in the last nine months and 1,491 dressings were distributed.

Thirty-six patients are receiving society aid; one patient is getting medication; 82 visiting nurse visits were carried out; 17 film on cancer have been shown; and 900 pieces of literature were distributed.

Area Soldiers Return Home

NEWFOUNDLAND — Four local men have returned from Summer training with the 305th Signal Company (FS&M), Monroe County Memorial Reserve Training Center, Tobyhanna Army Depot, at Camp Pickett, Virginia.

They were Sgt. Harry Smith, LaAnna; SP5 William Reichman, Greentown; PFC Edward Simon, Greentown; and SP4 Arthur Frey, South Sterling.

The men reported heavy rains, once to flooding proportions, during their stay in Virginia.

Multi-Million Dollar Drive

CARLISLE, Pa. (AP) — Roland L. Adams, Bethlehem newspaper executive, Monday was named head of a campaign to raise $21.8 million for development of Dickinson College during the next decade.

Adams, a 1927 Dickinson graduate, is president of companies that publish the Bethlehem Globe-Times and the Atlantic City, N. J., Press. He also heads the Adams Foundation which last year helped build a new million dollar dormitory bearing his and his wife's name.

IN APPRECIATION — Dr. James Fahl, left, outgoing president of the Monroe County Cancer Society, is presented with a plaque for his service by Mrs. Jeanette F. Batory, new society president.

Ike To Serve On Panel

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Former President Dwight D. Eisenhower will head a panel discussion on foreign policy here June 15 under the sponsorship of the Republican National Committee.

It will mark the last in a series of six "Party-to-People" forums held through the nation this year on the suggestion by Eisenhower.

Other panelists will be named later this week.

Scranton Pushes Local Autonomy

CHICAGO (AP)—Pennsylvania Gov. William W. Scranton challenged local and state governments, particularly the latter, this week, to take a more aggressive role in solving domestic problems peculiar to their areas.

The Daily Record, The Stroudsburg, Pa. — Thurs., June 4, 1964

"More and more it has fallen upon the federal Congress to devise solutions to costly problems," Scranton said in an address prepared for an appearance before the Commercial Club of Chicago.

"The result has been creation of what is almost a fourth branch of government—the bureaucracy," he declared.

Scranton, frequently mentioned as a likely compromise candidate for the Republican presidential nomination, said American government today is far too unresponsive to the needs of the American people.

Otis Morse Congratulates Demo's Cadue

HARRISBURG — Democratic State Chairman Otis B. Morse yesterday congratulated James V. Cadue of Tobyhanna on his election as Chairman of the Monroe County Democratic Committee. At the same time, Morse thanked retiring Democratic Chairman Walter C. G. Peterson of Stroudsburg for his service to the party.

Morse said, "Chairman Cadue has the benefit of the work done by Chairman Peterson and takes over leadership with a good organizational background already prepared."

"I have enjoyed working with the past chairman and am delighted to learn that he will remain active in party affairs. The facilities of this office will be available to Chairman Cadue and to the Monroe County Democratic Committee. We have much to do in Pennsylvania beginning right now with registration."

"I am confident that Chairman Cadue will devote all his available talent and time to the task and that as a result of his efforts the party in the state will be stronger and better than ever."

Wheeler Listed In Who's Who

MINISINK HILLS — A local president, Joseph C. Wheeler, is one of the 15 in every 10,000 Americans to be listed in the "Who's Who in America," and will also be included in the new tenth edition of "Who's Who in the East."

Listed as "government official," the biographical material includes his marriage to Shirley Price, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Price, East Stroudsburg in 1936, and the list of the positions he had held.

From 1939 to 1957, he was with the U. S. Department of Agriculture, serving as director of finance and budget officer, 1953-57, when he became executive and program officer of U.S. Information Service, American Embassy, Rome; and from 1957 to the present as deputy public affairs officer, USA, Belgrade, Yugoslavia.

The Wheelers will be returning June 9, and will make their home at Minisink Hills until they go to Washington where Wheeler has been named deputy secretary of administration of the United States Information Service.

Bobby Westbrook, a sister of Mrs. Wheeler, and Ruth Brown, both of The Daily Record, visited the Wheelers in Yugoslavia this Spring.

Bishop Players In 'St. Joan'

MT. POCONO — America's nationally known Bishop's Company will appear in person under the sponsorship of the Mt. Pocono Methodist Church, Belmont and Church Aves. Mt. Pocono, Pa. Saturday at 8:30 p. m. they will present highlights from George Bernard Shaw's classic play "Saint Joan".

The play deals forthrightly and fearlessly with the problems and questions that lie heavy on the conscience of the modern world.

"Saint Joan" is the story of the simple country girl who through the inspiration of her own faith, crowns a king and saves France for its historic identity. Fearless when she believed she was serving God's purpose on earth, she led her nation to victory and herself to martyrdom. The light of her brilliant achievements has shown through the centuries as an inspiration to anyone whose concern with conscience becomes a motivation in life.

The Bishop's Company, founded in Los Angeles in 1932 by Phyllis Beardsley Bokor, has achieved the enviable record of twelve years of consecutive national touring bringing fine drama into the houses of worship in the 50 states and five provinces in Canada.

It has appeared in over 6,000 churches of all denominations and has a performance record of only two performances missed (because of weather) in its nearly one million miles of touring.

The coveted role of Saint Joan will be played by Pat Manley. Sharing honors for the evening will be Jerry Vonne and John Dutt.

Driver Hurt In Rt. 940 Mishap

MT. POCONO — Cliff Martin, 35, of Baltimore, Md., is in fair condition at the General Hospital of Monroe County a hospital spokesman said yesterday. Martin was admitted late Sunday morning after he had been in an accident on Rt. 940.

Martin was treated for a concussion, contusions and lacerations of the face and legs. A passenger in the vehicle, Franklin White, 38, of Baltimore, Md., was also treated at the hospital and released, Mt. Pocono State Police said.

According to police Martin was traveling on Rt. 940 about six miles west of Mt. Pocono when he swerved at a detour sign and his car rolled over.

Poverty War Recruits Sought

PITTSBURGH (AP) — Peace Corps Director R. Sargent Shriver urged 750 graduates of Duquesne University this week to join the nation's battle against poverty.

"You are free to be heroes and to free others from poverty and fear," said Shriver, who also heads President Johnson's War on Poverty program.

Shriver's appearance at Duquesne's 88th commencement and later at a fund raising dinner for the Negro Educational Emergency Drive Need, marked his second visit to Pittsburgh in four days.

Duquesne awarded him an honorary degree of doctor of laws.

Shriver told graduates that America harbors what he called a subculture of poverty. He said it can be eliminated only by men and women willing "to sacrifice their middle class comforts to work and live in slum areas."

Cy Barrett Says

Vending Needs

By Cyrus Barrett, Jr.

DEAR CY: Some of the shell holes created by automation need to be filled by more workers. I would think vending machines, for example, are automatic, but must be serviced by human beings. Any employment opportunities in this field? As yet, I haven't seen any mechanical men putting gum and candy in machines and removing coins.

JOE STANLEY

DEAR JOE:

The automatic vending industry has increased tremendously in size and stature these past few turbulent years. In 1954, approximately 1.6 billion dollars worth of merchandise was merchandised through machines. Last year 3.2 billion dollars worth of sweets, smokes and all manner of sundries was sold by these robots who sell harder than many flesh and blood salesmen. Most vending organizations train routemen and repairmen.

Although the mechanisms have become progressively complex, a man experienced in electrical repair work can switch over to a specific machine with relative ease.

The void in automatic vending is for personnel with enough training to act in supervisory capacities. To establish a pool of potential employees who have aptitude and interest in this work, California has taken a forward stride. Los Angeles Tech recently began a course for high school graduates consisting of two hours' instruction, 5 days a week, from 7:00 a.m. to 1:30 p.m.

Your Horoscope

By FRANCIS DRAKE

Thursday, June 4, 1964
March 21 to April 20 (Aries) — Are you putting your talents to their best use? Review the questions pertinent. NOW. Speed of effort not as important as consistency.
April 21 to May 21 (Taurus) — There's more than one way to tackle and manage a job. Your first try is not successful, try again — and with better means and stronger purpose.
May 22 to June 21 (Gemini) — Observe others' methods, how and why they think and act as they do. A little serious observation could be worth a great deal. Some good opportunities in the offing.
June 22 to July 23 (Cancer) — Now sounds a little discouraging, if you overplay your hand, you could lose out on returns for your efforts.
July 24 to August 23 (Leo) — Consolidate your position; expand where it is warranted. And be calm, tending, day's chores adequately, without undue concern. Complete assigned tasks on time.
August 24 to September 23 (Virgo) — A desire to know beyond your limitations could unhinge nerves and disrupt your disposition of a smooth schedule and disposition. Watch it.
September 24 to October 23 (Libra) — Observe the rules as closely as your most diligent associates, and better. Be sure you know YOUR will and general behavior. Put aside dissension.
October 24 to November 23 (Scorpio) — Here is a special chance for you to display your ingenuity, quick wit, and ability draw others out, make them feel good. Any and all kind deeds will be appreciated.
November 24 to December 23 (Sagittarius) — Mostly favorable conditions. Do not let pressures or tensions hamper steady, well-tempered action. Especially in business and organizational affairs.
December 24 to January 23 (Capricorn) — Work promptly on the knotty problems, but do not blot them out of proportion. Let incidents remain just that, incidents, on an insuring, good results in your effort.
January 24 to February 23 (Aquarius) — Remember how many good temperaments are involved in any project and you won't be wondering how so many divergent opinions could be expressed on the same subject. Listening to all sides could prove illuminating.
February 24 to March 23 (Pisces) — Tolerate, being kindly disposed and understanding the difficulties of others will be big help during this strenuous period. But also be firm, period. Show respect.
YOU BORN TODAY are particularly, when uniquely original, you can follow orders capably, produce desired results quickly. You waste little time in the unnecessary, may even be too short on answers. You are independent, have life, are affectionate, full of life, ready for action all the time. Whatever field you enter, you get more out of it than most. You are possibly stimulating fiction — writers, statesmen with vision and far-reaching ideas. Keep your head, keep your soul, keep your faith strong. Several important decisions must be made. This year is particularly for new friendships, gains, birthdate of King George VI, England.

Washington Report

New York Law On Nudity May Inhibit Folies Bergere

By Richard Spong
Editorial Research Reports
WASHINGTON — The Folies Bergere opened an American presentation for the first time Tuesday and proved it often costs more to undress a woman than to dress her. This is the basic concept behind the Folies Bergere, the gay and handsome show that has been a symbol of Paris since 1869.

Thus the American version is capitalized at $300,000, with a proviso for an overall of 15 percent, which is about the average cost of a hang-up musical comedy.

And even so, costs have been held down by borrowing and reproducing sets and costumes from the current and previous Paris editions. When the Paris show opened this year, Variety's Gene Moskowitz reported that it cost $800,000 and "about looks it in production values."

It is curious that a show which is produced with such lavish and expensive care should be known, at that, for its nudity.

Its mannequins do not and its figurines never frequently make up in plumes and glitter what they lack in clothing. And the 12 mannequins who will be draped — there will be a dozen dressed and a dozen undressed — may be wearing gowns costing several thousands.

The New York City regulation is specific — "no female shall be permitted on stage . . . with breasts or the lower part of the torso uncovered." But Arthur Lesser, the U. S. producer, insists that the show will be "staged as close to the original as possible."

"This would presumably involve what were politely called pasties in burlesque days. One reporter suggests that New York City Commissioner Joseph C. DiCarlo is 'prepared to judge the show on its merits.'"

Man Hurt
In Crash

STROUDSBURG — One man was injured in a recent two-car crash at 6th and Sarah Streets in Stroudsburg, at 11:45 p. m., William J. Schoupp, 22, of 137 Ridgeway St., East Stroudsburg, was treated at the General Hospital of Monroe County. He hurt his left shoulder, left arm and knee. Stroudsburg police said.

According to police, Clifford R. Possinger, 33, of 430 Crescent St., East Stroudsburg, was traveling east on Sarah St. and Schoupp was traveling north on 6th St.

Possinger failed to stop for the stop sign and collided with the left side of Schoupp's vehicle, police said.

Possinger's 1955 car is a total loss and Schoupp's vehicle is extensively damaged, police said.

Farmers

STROUDSBURG — Individual farmers, or groups of farmers, with conservation problems on their land would do well to discuss the matter with the Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Committee, A. W. Martin, chairman, said yesterday.

Many times, the cost-share assistance available under the Agricultural Conservation Program makes it possible to carry out projects that farmers cannot accomplish alone, the chairman pointed out. And, many times, pooling their own resources and the available ACP assistance is the only way a group of farmers can solve a problem that extends beyond the boundaries of a single farm.

Martin explained that, with the 1964 ACP well under way, work has already been started on formulating the 1965 program which will be in effect this fall and next year.

ACP applies to farmland throughout the 50 States, Puerto Rico, and the Virgin Islands.

It is especially effective since it is formulated by local people to deal scientifically with local—as well as national—conservation problems. Needed conservation measures are recommended by local farm leaders and technicians of several agencies and organizations.

Because requests for conservation assistance generally far outstrip the available program funds, priority is given to work that is needed most. In some areas, according to the chairman, the conservation of scarce water is absolutely necessary to the survival of farmers as well as nonfarm people.

In these cases, such ACP measures as water impoundments and preventing water waste in transit may be the answer to the water-conservation problem. Soil-erosion problems may be solved with some of the same practices.

Old Newfoundland Theater To House Summer Stock

By Peggy Bancroft
Record Correspondent

NEWFOUNDLAND — A new name, a renewed purpose, and a bright new future have "happened" to the Haubert Theatre, where Standing Room Only dedication ceremonies were held in 1926. (The seats hadn't arrived!)

The 400-seat theatre, termed "one of the best technically equipped theatres in any rural area on the Eastern Coast," has become the Newfoundland Musical Theatre. It will be the center of a ten-week summer stock season, with a company of some 35 singers, dancers and actors from New York City.

Anthony Carone, Joseph Elia, and Andrew Fredricks, theatrical producers, have brought the Theatre to Newfoundland, and the 1964 season will open with Frank Loesser's musical fable of Broadway, "Guys and Dolls," on July 1. Performances will be Wednesday through Friday at 8:30 p.m., and Saturday at 7:30 and 10:30 p.m.

Following this smash Broadway musical will be such diverse entertainments as "Pajama Game"; "Gypsy"; "Bye Bye Birdie"; the immortal "South Pacific"; and a pre-Broadway tryout of Jock Sauter's "Oh My Milly".

Mr. Sauter is the author of New York's newest musical hit, "Cindy," and has specifically chosen the Newfoundland Musical Theatre Company to introduce his latest musical.

Each of the programs will run two weeks, and "Oh My Milly" will run for one.

The company, all of whom have extensive backgrounds on Broadway, in stock, television and radio, will be under the direction of Jerry Marshall and the choreography of Gretchen MacLane. Director of music Douglas Finny will begin rehearsals on June 18, with the company and Mr. Marshall and Miss MacLane joining him soon thereafter.

Anthony Carone, who was this past winter the manager of the Astor Theatre on Broadway, has produced two seasons of stock in addition to serving as publicity director for the inaugural season of the now famous Fort Myers Winter Playhouse in Florida. His various productions at the 2,207 seat opera house in Brooklyn Academy of Music were, in the main, responsible for inspiring live theatre interest in the borough of Brooklyn.

Presentation Hailed
"The Emperor's New Clothes," which he presented in association with the Children's Fantasy Theatre, was hailed as the best 1962 children's show in New York City, by the Board of Education.

Associate producer Joseph Elia's credits include Pajama Game, South Pacific, Guys and Dolls, and numerous other Broadway shows. Andrew Fredricks, also associate producer,

Teens Right Monument On Base

By Jim Shafer
Daily Record Reporter

STROUDSBURG — Many times, too many times in fact, teenagers are condemned for acts committed by only a small percentage of their numbers, but little is said when they do something good.

John Montgomery, industrial arts teacher at Stroud Union High School, walked into the editorial office of The Daily Record with a smile that would melt the coldest of hearts.

"Mr. Shafer, I have five boys from one of my classes who yesterday did the community what I consider a very good deed. They were shown an article you wrote several days ago about the first public school in the county and the monument, marking its location, being knocked off its base. They asked if they could go out to the spot and put the monument back on its base," he said.

"Permission was granted by the administration and the boys got a truck from the Stroudsburg Granite Co. Some of them rode in the truck and the rest rode with me. The stone is now back on its base and I'm very proud of them," he concluded.

The boys traveling to Hamilton Twp. and righting the monument were Bill Bunting, Douglas Pugh, Bruce Feller, Jerry Hoover and Dean Feller.

"Of course, Bill Burnett, whose father operates the Stroudsburg Granite Co., got his dad's truck to do the job. Bill is used to that type of work and he more or less acted as the 'Superintendent on the job,'" Montgomery concluded.

Baccalaureate

NEWFOUNDLAND — Baccalaureate will be held at Wallenpaupack Area Joint Junior-Senior High School on Lake Wallenis promotional assistant.

The Newfoundland Rotary Club, cooperating with the company, is backing the project with a committee including Raymond LaVigne, Henry Lember, Arthur Amadi, Bob Staph, Don Nicholson and Bill Gilpin.

The Haubert Theatre, although inactive for the past few seasons, has played an important role in the social and cultural picture of the area. Built in 1926, it is, according to Bob Staph, who attended the dedication ceremonies, "right up to snuff. Charles Haubert was so far ahead of his day that his theatre presented live shows long before anyone else did it."

Such guests as Elia Kazan, Lisbeth Scott, Ethel Barrymore, Col. The Jitney Players, and Mae Desmond "trod the boards" at the Haubert Theatre. Even Joseph Sauter, whose sure-to-be-a-hit play will be introduced here this summer, played here in 1952.

The Haubert Theatre has come a long way since the day in 1926 when the audience sat on planks across nail kegs. It has been beautifully redecorated by the new company for its opening on July 1. An SRO audience should attend the gala premiere performance, even if only to pay homage to a man who was so far ahead of his time who created a theatre in 1926 that was to be among the technically best-equipped in 1964.

NO RELOCATION PROBLEMS HERE—Mrs. Robin carefully and fearfully guards her nest and six eggs against outside intrusion. The bird built the nest in the wrecker of an East Stroudsburg garageman Edgar Panna. Panna remarked that the robins could stay there until they learned to fly—and fly they did. The nest was constructed in the middle of April and the birds left last week.

Boat Owners To Hear State Aide

TAFTON — Commander Edward R. Sharp, director of the Boating Division of the Pennsylvania Fish Commission, will be the principal speaker at the Lake Wallenpaupack Yacht Club, in the clubhouse, Saturday, June 20, at 3 p. m.

The meeting is open to all boat owners in Northeastern Pennsylvania.

Highlights of the meeting will be the discussion of new boating, fishing, and water skiing regulations.

Eastburg Robins Fly Away But Tale Stays Forever

EAST STROUDSBURG — Six robins have learned to fly and have left their nest in the wrecker of Edgar Panna, an East Stroudsburg garageman.

Mrs. Robin built the nest in the cross-frame of the boom on the tow truck about the middle of April. The robins left the nest last Wednesday. After the eggs were hatched, Panna had this to say: "That wrecker isn't going to move until those birds learn how to fly and that's it."

Panna referred to the little birds as "homesteaders." "When they learn how to fly, I'll put that wrecker back in service," he said. He owns another wrecker.

Panna and his friends were afraid if the nest was moved, the mother robin would fly away abandoning its young.

While making the other wrecker ready for service, Panna had to turn aside several service calls. "I lost between $50 and $75 while this truck was out of service. The other tow truck was not quite ready for action. But, I'd do it again if necessary," he happily remarked.

"Even if I had only one truck to use I would let the nest alone," he added.

Panna reported that he received about 200 telephone calls and several letters and post cards from different areas of the country. The response to the nesting robins all started on May 18 when The Daily Record's Staff Photographer, Rod MacLeod, snapped three shots of the nesting birds.

In a card from M. R. Shepherd of Galien, Mich., he had this to say: "I saw in the H. Press of St. Joseph, Mich., a picture of a robin nesting on six eggs in your wrecker and you say you will use another one until the birds are gone. I want to say you are a real man. And, I sure would like to shake your hand. Not many men would do this."

From Washington, D.C. In a letter from Theodore R. Hile of Washington, D.C. Hile had this to say to Panna: "It does my heart good to read of such a thing. I watched my boy feed a sick pigeon warm milk with an eye dropper when he was about 12-years old. He is now 19 and a fine young man. We are so proud of him. Your wife and mother must be very proud of you. If you ever come to Washington, D.C., I would be so glad if you would drop in and see us. I was born and raised in Saxton, Pa."

Panna's truck is back in service again and all is well. However, the robin's nest can still be seen nestled in the truck boom.

Greene CD Meet

NEWFOUNDLAND — The Greene Township Civil Defense will meet at 8 p.m. on Thursday, June 4, at the Hemlock Grove Methodist Church, Greentown, with Charles Walter presiding in the final session until fall.

Shortway Work Moving Along

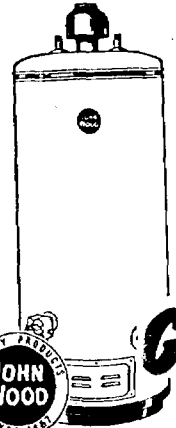

WILLIAMSPORT — C. E. Noyes, executive director of the Keystone Shortway, this week announced the current status of the Keystone Highway in Pennsylvania.

He said there is 34.2 miles of highway completed and open to traffic; 125.8 miles presently under construction; 48.6 miles to be awarded this year; 60.6 new miles to be awarded during the first half of 1965, and 40.3 miles to be awarded in the last half of 1965.

Noyes also said that all sections not open or in construction are now in final design.
